IOWA CITY, IOWA, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 29, 1910. NUMBER 50.

IOWA DEBATERS ARE READY FOR CONTESTS

COACH ROBINSON IS SATISFIED WITH WORK.

Minnesotans and Wisconsinites Will Have Heart-Raising Rounds of Iowa's Men.

Iowa's teams are ready today to borrow the Wisconsin team for Madison and Minnesota's trio that meets the Hawkeyes on the home platform will probably arrive in Iowa City the following day.

Coach E. R. Robinson said yesterday that his men were fit. They have done all that hard work and study can do to prepare themselves and I know they will make the best showing we realize that we are up against a stiff proposition but we are going to do our best. We hope to come away with Iowa's title again. Wisconsin is composed of experienced debaters. Frank Jones, Law 32, was an inter-collegiate debater while at Conesus High College. Two years ago he led the Set junior team in the class debate, while last year he was a member of the team that defeated Minnesota and Northwestern on the Iowa platform. He is a member of Beta Sigma Rho fraternity and is a good debater.

His two colleagues are both strong debaters. Edgar Askington, L. 32, lost the Set championship team last year and also led the junior's team as a freshman. Leon Poors, L. 32, the Iowa anachronist and freshman debater.

Glen Cunneally, Law 33, leads the Minnesota triumvirate. In his freshman year he won the valedictory contest of his class. In 1909 he was a member of the Irving championship team and last year he represented Wisconsin. He is the director of the Irving anachronist and a member of Beta Sigma Rho.

The other debaters on the Minnesota team are F. H. S. Taylor, Law 33, and Earl Lens, L. 33. Church's an old Normal debater, while last year he represented Palaeontologists.

In the Irving debate, Wednesday, the first round will be a test of the Irving's ability to stand up against the Iowa's debaters are going to use them.

In the last round of the debate, there will be three teams, and it will be a very exciting occasion. The three teams will be the Petaluma, the New York and the Iowa.

The Petaluma team is composed of three debaters from the University of California, three from the University of Denver, and three from the University of Colorado.

The New York team is composed of four debaters from the University of Chicago, three from the University of Illinois, three from the University of Minnesota, and three from the University of Wisconsin.

The Iowa team is composed of four debaters from the University of Iowa, three from the University of Wisconsin, three from the University of Minnesota, and three from the University of Illinois.

The Petaluma team was the only team that was able to win a debate against the Iowa team last year. The New York team was able to win a debate against the Iowa team last year. The Iowa team was able to win a debate against the Iowa team last year.

the state, and he is regarded second only

The team chosen shows what is in but one department of the game. The line will be almost impeccable, and the backfield is quite snappy and fast. In Wyland, it assumes one of the best passers in the west, and the same player is an asset to the lowest place. The) only weakness lies in the lack of a good drop or place kicker. This weakness exists materially because there was no full class kicker in the state, who could hold up his end in other departments of the game. Smith of Ames was heralded as a coming wonder in this line after he won the Mono-direct game for Ames, but he failed immediately in the crucial contests with Iowa and Drake. However, G.
Smith is a fair drop kicker, and would be the only hope of this cause if it becomes necessary to try a week for the air items.
