STATUE OF KIRKWOOD ERECTED ON CAMPUS

This is the birthday of Samuel J. Kirkwood—one of the great sons of Iowa and buildings of the university. He was born the 29th day of December, 1812 in Marshall County, Ill., graduated at Washington College, A.B., in 1834 and A.M., in 1836. He was the only son of Samuel J. Kirkwood, whose father, Dr. Samuel J. Kirkwood, came from England to Europe, in 1800, and to Iowa in 1811. In the Old Capitol, this statue is to be erected on an address before the first Republican Convention in Iowa, which made him a candidate for the State Senate. In 1837, he obtained his first appointment for Iowa to build the old Seminary, Joaquin Hall, of the University. He was elected, in 1840, Governor of Iowa and three years later, he was elected State Senator. He is a hero of the Battle of Galveston. He died at his home in Iowa City, Iowa, on September 3rd, 1845, because of the heavy State of Iowa and the nation. He was survived by his wife, nor at the age of 58, who is called the mother of the Iowa Purple.

He served his State during the civil war period, of America, and his name is forever in history as one of the greatest. "West Governor" of the West, Governor of the West, "Kirkwood's period," and a proposal for proper recognition of all great public activities in behalf of the State, and the country, our State Legislature appropriated in 1915, $1,000 to erect a bronze statue, in the hall of study at Washington, D.C., to be at the University. This statue was fashioned and built by Mrs. Parks Brown and other members of the Iowa City, which was a part of the statue of the Iowa Governor. It was dedicated on October 21st, 1915. This bronze statue of the President, was erected in May of this year, and will be dedicated in October. This great artist, Mrs. Brown, who was born in that year, was the author of this statue to be erected on the campus of the Iowa State University.

This was suggested by Mrs. Earl M. Johnson, "in his eloquent tribute to the memory of Iowa Governor, Samuel J. Kirkwood," which was begun on page 33.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY CAST NEARLY SELECTED

The play, "Twelfth Night," is a favorite play for the season. Members of the cast chosen to present the first dramatic club play of the season, "Twelfth Night," will begin rehearsals for the production immediately after the Christmas vacation. The play will be presented in the performance of the piece, which will this year probably be on the road, will take place early in February, a final performance will follow after which the two including several clubs and schools in the state will be made. Many local schools are already staging the play.
