MISSES ARE OFFERED FOR SHORT STORIES
DEERVEY ANNOUNCES AN ANNUAL COMPETITION.

Join Miss Beverley's Short Story and Essay Contest. The management is on the lookout for the clever young novelist and the literary essayist. Your imagination and wit can be displayed in this contest. First prize is to be awarded for the best story of 1,500 words or less. Second prize, for the best essay of 1,000 words or less. Third prize, for the best essay of 1,200 words or less. The contest closes February 15. No entries will be returned unless specified. Contestants must be enrolled in the University and must copy their entries. Deadline for entries is February 15. No exceptions. Envelopes must be labeled with name and address of entrant. Contestants may enter as many stories or essays as they wish. Entries must be typewritten and must not exceed 2,000 words. First prize is $100.00, Second prize is $50.00, Third prize is $25.00. The judges are Miss Beverley and Miss Zelma Workman. The winner of the contest will be announced in the Hawkeye on February 15.

PRIZES ARE OFFERED FOR SHORT STORIES

dear Miss Beverley,

The short story contest is being held in the Hawkeye. It is open to all students enrolled in the University. The contest is being held to encourage young writers to express their ideas and to develop their creative abilities. The contest is open to students of all majors, and both fiction and non-fiction stories are welcome. The contest is judged by a panel of judges, including Miss Beverley and Miss Workman. The winner will receive a $100.00 prize. The contest closes February 15. No entries will be returned unless specified. Contestants must be enrolled in the University and must copy their entries. Deadline for entries is February 15. No exceptions. Envelopes must be labeled with name and address of entrant. Contestants may enter as many stories as they wish. The winner of the contest will be announced in the Hawkeye on February 15.

NEW MUSIC PLAYED AT SOLDIER'S BALL

The play which is to be given this year by the Hawkeyes and football players, an operetta, has been chosen for the season. The play is to be presented at the Governor's Mansion next Friday night. The play will be entitled "The Three Misses." Miss Florence Dillea, the public speaking department has charge of the play, which promises to be a success. The arrangement and music, which are the best features, will make one of the most interesting events of the season. The play is to be given with a full orchestra.

See Us For The Best

POOR OLD MURPHY!

The sporting world is just now looking with sad and sorrowful sympathy upon the passing of the hero of the day. It is a rule in every game that the athlete is bound to catch a stage which makes the limit of his career—thus the time of decline is sure to come. But for most of us, this hashistoric hour is yet to come. And, so the rule will hold true—until we have the same reason to regard the stage as an afterthought, a "poor old Murphy," but no misfortunes will be at all a possibility for our own lives.
