IOWA CITY, IOWA, FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1911.

LITURGICAL SOCIETIES WILL CHOOSE TEAMS.

PLOTZ AND MARSHALL LAW TO MEET IN CONTEST.

Before a large and enthusiastic audience the curtains at the Coliseum opened on the opening literary society play of the year, "Aisle." Press start to finish the play was a great success.

Another continuous and long applause was rewarded by the happy episodes that were crammed into the play. The census elected the first in the压制 of the greatest successes in the production.

The scene is laid in a mining town in one of the western states.

It is the story of a roots and numerous other characters that go to make up a plot.

Kermes Pink, in the role of Dick Crowding, young eager, Optimistic made a great hit as his. His reputation throughout the whole town for a year and a half, there is no compromise. The play was well launched last evening. With its popularity proved great, it plays had been at the heretofore. Greasy Rain, the typical alderman, was very realistic. Theodora Black, as the Proprietary Secretary, provided comic relief of the play.

20-21 WHAT?

Following closely the matinee figures are "1" which sealed the fate on the Illinois, and "2" which were mysteries. It was to be expected yesterday. While the first figure was just a single figure and nothing more, the second figure was a composite of the shape of a cross mark and off. Another fist null with deep interest by the literary department. What was already on the track was that, although the production of Weddings was printed on green paper, yesterday's was being kept. giving anything that the detective wanted to work.

Another of the greatest problems of the day and that the country should discontinue this form. Affirmative: "Tapping, Thompson, Neagley, J. A. Lewis, Captain, North." Negative; "Schofield."" Minneapolis	Reporter.

The laws are limited to four.

The key is to be given at the National Society on April 10, 1911, to C. M. Carman on "Military Law and Procedure of Courts Martial." The following is the regular order for the candidates.

NORMAN RANPOKAT.

The Normalists, club, composed of students, formalizes in the State Normal Union.

A new scene hall and beautiful plant are being constructed at the Methodist Church.

That's a Fact--We are Selfish

We don't intend to let anyone get away with our reputation. We have been years building up the foundation for the right to be known as "The Reliable Jewelers" and we do not propose to let that get away.
