President MacLean Resigns

No announcement of future Head of Institution has been made by Board.

During the interval in which the Board was not available, Dr. George H. MacLean re- signed his office, and the resignation was accepted.

President MacLean's letter of resignation was read in the matter in the Daily Iowa follows:

Mrs. H. S. MacLean,

The President, Iowa City.

To the Editor of The Iowa,

In accordance with the request of the President of the Iowa State Board of Education, I have had my resignation from my official position accepted, and, therefore, I shall not have the pleasure of being present at the next meeting of the Board of Directors, which will be held Oct. 17. Arrangements have been made for securing new officers, and, as a matter of form, the Board of Directors have accepted the resignations of the officers who have been in control of this institution, and appointed new ones.

President MacLean.

In a nutshell, it is one of the most violent scenes from start to finish and the leading ladies of all the larger print have portrayed "Holly Wine" as the secret remedy for the worst cases of emotions.

Mr. Smith has been overwhelmed
