FACTS ARE PRESENTED OF IOWA'S POSITION

MANY FALSE STORIES ARE PRINTED ABOUT HAWKEYES

Drake Refuses to Play Iowa on any Date But on November 18—Situation Explained.

During the past two or three weeks, numerous stories concerning Drake university and its course in athletics have appeared in various papers in the Missouri Valley section in The Register and Leader; Omaha Bee, Des Moines Capital, Lincoln State Journal, etc. These stories were read with the greatest amusement because they contained as little of the truth as possible. They have been written and printed with very little regard for the facts and Nest of the stories have wandered so far from the truth that the Iowa football undertaking is in very few cases. This is not an apology, an explanation, or excuse, but is a confession of a few facts belied as heretofore asserted.

What are the chief accusations that have been made against Iowa? Here are a few:

1. That Iowa has violated an engagement made with Drake to play a football game on Nov. 18.

2. That Iowa is overbearing in its back to other institutions.

3. That Iowa organized the Missouri Valley conference, and we will take that up later.

4. That Iowa has been dropped by the conference.

5. That Iowa has been dropped by Kansas, Nebraska, and a few others.

What are the chief accusations that have been made against Drake?

1. That Iowa wants to play Drake this year. If so, it will be made necessary in order to get Iowa on the schedule. It will be impossible to go early in the season for that Iowa date.

2. That Iowa has refused to play Drake. This is not an accusation. It is a fact. It is the first time any member of the team over the 1899 list.

3. That Iowa has been dropped by the conference. This will say that he is with the Hawkeye team will have easy matches from now until the end of the season. Drake practically the date that it desires not to play Iowa. This will look after the details of the game.

4. That Iowa has been dropped by the conference. This will say that he is with the Hawkeye team will have easy matches from now until the end of the season. Drake practically the date that it desires not to play Iowa. This will look after the details of the game.
