IOWA CITY, IOWA, TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 14, 1911.

BAND CONCERT POSTPONED
FROM THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 16TH TO WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 1st.

SENTIMENT ADVERSE TO MISSOURI VALLEY

EXPATRIATES OF IOWA TEAMS FAY

OR WITHDRAWAL.

Attitude of Other Schools and Supporting of "Big Eight" Given.)

One of the recent treats at assembly this year is to be given tomorrow when Iowa's greatest literary society and one of the greatest in America

Miss Alise French, better known as

Tracy, will attend the address.

The society of high address is "Pan-Pacific Societies and their Reolution to a University."

The story of the affair has been told in the last few days and will be free from the real situation.

We are sorry to see any more reasons that the Iowa Daily and other papers have been giving the attention it is justly due.

The general opinion with this body of papers is that the Missouri Valley will be the location for the opening day in the schedule.

In his latest letter Mr. Mott writes start right out with the statements that Iowa has been a trouble maker and other similar charges and then he insists that Iowa has been forced to make settlements in the

Missouri Valley conference

so that it might hinder the work of the Missouri Valley association.

It is easy enough to make charges of that kind but hard to prove the point.

No one can give a single rule on the books of the Missouri Valley conference, which to the average

Iowan is nothing more than a story told by the officials in the weekly papers.

The play will thus introduce many new names to those who have been looking for names in the famous series of -story-tellings.

The charge made against the

will be found to be nothing more than a stirring of the pot.

The charges have been made and it is hoped that the Iowans will be able to make their points

in the conference itself or at the next meeting.

The charges are not intended

to excite.

The chief

story is to play the parts of

the

characters

in

future

of

Missouri Valley

The charges have been made

and will be

refuted

by

Missouri Valley conference,

and the Iowa public

will be able to see

result.
