N. O. L. PRELIMINARY

TODAY

NORRIS, U.S.S. UNARMED

Lead Institute and Northwestern in the West, in their home games. The Hawkeyes have prepared for the next two weekends, being ready to begin preparations for the second round trip of the year, which occurs next Friday and Saturday. Lead Institute and Northwestern are the prospective opponents, both due in on their own courts.

Quick Stewart expressed himself as still satisfied with the work of the players, and that through the course of the Minnesota game was much larger than it should have been if the defense knew where he was. Stewart's men were considerably stronger than expected, however, giving the team a chance in the close contest.
