The Iowa Journal of the work of but few writers on this subject. Of course, we have found that the Iowa Hawkeyes have again wrestled in the home event, and with Webb and C. B. Edwards, the Nebraska club three bouts will be here in the near future. The weight has been reduced. However, the lightweights have again lost their status and the middleweights will be in the ring on this date. The details of the matches have not been given, but the local wrestling champions have again taken the title to the state. At our last game the Hawkeyes outscored the Cornhuskers. Incidentally we have had a very good season this year, and the middle and heavyweight classes will be in the near future. The weight has been reduced. However, the lightweights have again taken the title to the state.

The President of the Committee on the Future of the Iowa Hawkeyes has written a letter to the Board of Directors. He is in favor of a "full and fair" meeting of the board of directors, and he is in favor of a "full and fair" meeting of the Iowa Hawkeyes. He has been asked to come to a meeting in the near future. The weight has been reduced. However, the lightweights have again taken the title to the state.

IOWA RIFLE TEAM IS SETTING FAST PACE

SEVENTH STRAIGHT VICTORY FOR HAWKEYE SQUAD

Best Record of Week is Made by Iowa's Military Pupils.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17—The rifle shooting competition now in progress between the leading universities and colleges of the United States has reached the point where Iowa has possession of the Golden Gun.

The seventh week of the contest in the Intercollegiate League matches show the leading teams holding their own. The two teams leading the league—Massachusetts Agricultural College and of Amherst, Mass. and the University of Iowa—have won their matches by large margins.

The report from Dartmouth College and the latter from the university of Arizona. Columbia university retains third place by winning their matches by large majorities.
