HAYWEEKEY FEATURES
Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A.

Today's assembly presented one of the most unusual features to be seen in this or any other city. The last night in the history of the Student Union building at the University of Iowa, prominent religious leaders from all parts of the world gathered to address the students assembled in the Student Union in the last assembly of its kind to be held.

The speakers included notable figures from various religious denominations. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., and was attended by students from all over the State of Iowa.

The assembly was an attempt to bring together people of different faiths and backgrounds to discuss common issues and provide a platform for dialogue and understanding.

The event was a landmark in the history of the Student Union building, which had been a central hub for student activities and events.

The assembly concluded with a benediction from the presiding clergyman, who urged the students to continue the spirit of unity and cooperation in their future endeavors.

The final assembly marked the end of an era, as the Student Union building was set to undergo renovation and expansion to accommodate the growing student population.

ROOT FOR BASEBALL

Returning to a familiar old routine, we mean—indeed, a really good thing. Just why organized baseball should not, in spite of all equalities and moralities, be as hard to see. But the fact is that, while Yale men are held before football games and the games themselves are attended by huge volumes of noise, the training thus acquired is not used to support of interest in sport, basketball, or track. In the absence of argument on the other side of the question, we hereby affirm that it might as well be so.

Tomorrow's train arriving comes in Iowa City for the most important baseball game of the season. It means that, for a considerable time, the enthusiasm which was formerly united in one body scattered in disconnected names and perhaps might be directed in a more intelligent and desirably more helpful way. A small, well-organized Roots' squad is needed. Such a squad can do a great deal, and should not be hard to raise. Telephonic Palmer is undoubtedly ready to do his part in founding it—his definite organization is needed. Simply go to the game and gather with the bunch, prepared to pull you pod in the football field.

THE DENTAL CLINIC

The Daily Iowa dozen send a note of welcome to the visiting dentists, as are accustomed here the the big dental clinic now in session.

The work of this body, it is true, information all are not educated to the university. It having come in touch with the Iowa association of dentist some years ago.

It is the intention, with the that the visiting dentist be accorded the best that Hawkeyes afford, and that the impression may be left in them that this is really the ideal place for
