Our visitors, Iowa voters, whether at football, basketball, or baseball games, have acquired a reputation for fairness and good sportsmanship not usual in the West. It is a long time since there was such a crowd and such a desire to see true,Iowa visitors.

All is at all necessary, even in good taste, to make here the treatment of the women in the Hotel Mount, and in the hotel, next week. Thus far, the visitors from Iowa have been treated with courtesy by everyone, and one doubted that the Iowa fans will be as generous as any in their conduct while the game is progressive.

But there is another side to the matter. The Waseca team will be in Iowa City at least three days, perhaps longer. During that time some women of considerable experience, both in voice and some music, in the entertainment. The athletic board will do its part, the Hawkeye band is getting help, and the Cassgram will publish a song. There is no question of whether the Iowa fans will be as generous as any in their conduct while the game is progressive.

State Tennis Tournament
It might be well to say here that the State Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament will be held on the Iowa courts next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Few people seem to take not too much notice of the event, and, therefore, still care to try for the team which will represent Iowa in the tournament. Two teams to be in many places a popular sport, with a little more interest and application to the game it might become such here.

Mr. H. J. S. Bacon, director of the band and of the university orchestra, has decided to accept a position at the new University of Idaho, for next year.
