THE CROWD AT GLEN OPEN.

The combined boys and girls groups of the "University girls" and "Liberal Arts" have decided to present the opera "A Practical Knot" at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening, May 19. The action of an entire opera is an unusual undertaking for girls clubs, and it is expedient to meet with considerable favor among local music lovers.

The glue state have been working upon the practical side under the efficient direction of Professor W. P. Christy. The music of the opera is said to be brilliant and, as it should be, if the actors take care of it properly.
