SENIOR CLASS PLAY AT COLDREN MONDAY

WILL BE GIVEN TOMORROW EVENING.

Heavy Sale Yesterday Takes All Orchestra Seats—Special Scenery Secured for Play.

Dress rehearsal for the senior class play, "Quality Street," which will be given tomorrow evening at the Coldren, was held yesterday afternoon. Miss Norma Harrison, who is coaching the cast, reports that the rehearsal went off smoothly, and that she is more than gratified at the prospects for one of the best amateur productions ever put on here.

Special scenery and costumes have been secured by C. H. Crowe, who is managing the play, and these arrived in time for the dress rehearsal yesterday. The effect of these added greatly to the merit of the production, and is expected to prove one of the features of the performance.

One of the unique elements in the play will be introduced in the second act, when sixteen school children make their appearance in a juvenile scene. The youngsters have been carefully coached in their part, and are said to furnish one of the most effective parts in the act.

Professor Howard Barnum and a twelve-piece orchestra will furnish the music for the performance. This is a larger orchestra than is ordinarily available at the Coldren, but the demand for music at various points in the play caused the management to supply the extra pieces.

The management has asked that especial emphasis be laid on the fact that the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15. This is necessary for many reasons, and the audience is expected to be in its seats at that time. Manager Crowe reported heavy seat sale yesterday, all the orchestra seats being reserved by five o'clock. Many mail orders for reservations have come in from alumni and out of town friends of members of the cast, and in all probability every seat in the house will be gone by tomorrow evening, as the senior play always draws a full house. The sale will continue tomorrow afternoon from 12:45 until the time for the opening act.

Begin Work on Show.

Intent on making their next St. Patrick's day celebration an absolutely unrivaled performance, the engineers have already begun work on their show. The play is being written by Fred Bates and F. W. Wodrick and is to be entitled, "Oski-Wow-Wow in the Land of Who-Wah-Wah"

Engineers Read Theses.

Reading of theses by the senior engineers began in the College of Applied Science yesterday. About half of the class of thirty read their theses yesterday, and the remainder will be read tomorrow.

YEAR'S WORK IS FINISHED FOR UNIVERSITY REGIMENT

Adjutant General Logan Reviews the Iowa Cadets.

The last work of the cadet regiment for the year was held Friday afternoon, when the annual Governor's inspection took place on Iowa field. Although Governor Carroll was unable to come, he was represented by Adjutant-General Guy Logan, the head of the Iowa National Guard.

The regiment formed for review promptly at 4:30, and, with the band at its head, passed before President MacLean, Adjutant General Logan, Colonel R. P. Howell, of the Fifty-fourth Iowa, and Captain Morton C. Mumma, commandant of the regiment.

After the review, the commissioned officers were presented with their commissions from the state by Adjutant-General Logan. After this, President MacLean presented the swords and medals won in the competitive drills to the winners. Captain Tunis Klein of Company F received the Coast sword, his company having won the field competition. Captain Van Nostrand of Company B, whose company won the drill in manual of arms, received the Lilley sabre. Lieutenant Fuller was given the medal as best drilled junior, while Sergeant Arneson received the sophomore medal and Corporal Glick the freshman. Major L. R. Leeper received the medal as leading individual marksman of the rifle team, and the other members of the team, which won the national collegiate championship, were also decorated.

An unfortunate feature of the review was the illness of Hugh Wilson, of Company D, who fainted just after the regiment passed in review before the officers. Wilson was at once carried from the field and placed under the care of a doctor, but had not entirely recovered yesterday. His collapse was due to the heat, which was extreme during the course of the dress parade.

Hesperians Elect.

At a recent meeting Hesperia elected the following officers for the fall term: President, Lonja Krenz; vice-president, Bess Burnett; treasurer, Vera Whitacre; recording secretary, Helen Baldwin; corresponding secretary, Fan Bradley; critic, Helen Carson.

Senior Breakfast Tomorrow.

The senior class breakfast will be held tomorrow morning at 8:30 at the Burkley. Toasts will be given by various members of the class and by representatives of the faculty.

Iowa City Wins Points.

Shrader of Iowa City tied for first in the high jump at Stagg's interscholastic in Chicago yesterday. Parsons of Iowa City was second in the quarter and fourth in the half, giving Iowa City eight points in the meet.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES TOMORROW AFTERNOON

PHARMACISTS TO JOIN WITH LIBERAL ARTS.

Only College to Accept Collegiate Invitation to Participate in Exercises.

Tomorrow afternoon will come the annual class day exercises of the senior class of 1911. Two graduating classes will hold their exercises together following out the system inaugurated for the first time this year. It was thought that more of the graduates would join in the exercises. The Pharmacists will be the class to join with the Liberal Arts in the annual exercises.

A somewhat shorter program has been arranged in view of this double system and part of it will be given in front of the L. A. Hall and part at the Pharmacy building. The two bodies of graduates will meet at the former building for the first part and then march in a body to the Chemistry building for a second part. According to the usual custom the seniors will appear in their caps and gowns for the event.

Due to the fact that Pres. Horace Young has not yet returned from the Layson Island expedition, Miss Lillian Minnich will have the honor of planting the ivy. Either she or some substitute is to give the annual president's address. Mr. Harry Foster is the speaker for the Pharmacists.

Following is the program: President's Opening Address. Class Oration, Paul Collier. Class History, George Thompson. Class Poem, Pearl Bennett. Planting of the Ivy, Lillian Minnich. Faculty Response, Dean William Wilcox. Class Songs. Pharmacy Class Oration, Harry Foster.

ANNUAL EXERCISES HELD BY LITERARY SOCIETIES

Insignia Presented to Sixty-Nine Graduates.

The forty-third annual commencement of the literary societies was held in the Natural Science Auditorium Friday evening. The sixty-nine members who graduated received insignia in the shape of appropriate pins, which were presented by the presiding officers to each member. This number does not equal that of last year due to the fact that the Marshall Laws did not participate last Friday evening.

"The Boy Scout Movement" by Miss Ethyl Martin was an address that appealed especially to the audience.

Mr. John Fisher gave an address on "The American University." Mr. Fisher handled his subject in excellent style.

The speaker for the Zetagathians was R. L. Masson. He took for his subject, "The Duty of a College Man" and by adding experience to facts he showed clearly what the duty of a college man really is.

The list of graduates follows:

- Zetagathian.
 - H. L. Anderson, Thompson Brookhart, F. Bruins, Macy Campbell, A. M. Carmichael, R. F. Clough, Clifford Crowe, Otis Gilbrech, John Campbell, C. W. Kirkpatrick, Floyd McDowell, William DeBusk, T. H. Tapping, G. K. Thompson, P. E. Van Nostrand, Horace Young, W. T. Gutz.
- Hesperia.
 - India Goodman, Wilma Nichols, Hannah Phelps, Amy Purvis, Lydia Potratz, Bertha Reichart, Ada Yocum
- Irving.
 - Frank Baer, Earl Browning, Clark Burkheimer, Glenn Cunningham, Sam Erwin, Harry Garrett, Allen Hitchcock, Harry Langland, Ruel Liggett, J. R. Loutzenhizer, Karl Loos, G. L. Norman, F. M. Pownell, E. B. Stillman, Floyd E. Thomas, Clyde E. Waters, A. A. Zimmerman.

 - Agnes Beach, Beulah Brown, Mabel Horner, Lou Kennedy, Mary Masson, Fannie Koch, Florence Maher.

Mistake in Announcement.

The printed announcements of the program of events for commencement week contain a mistake in the time set for the alumni business meeting on Tuesday. The meeting will be held at 11 o'clock instead of 9 as printed on the announcements. The meeting will be held at the alumni headquarters.

MANY ALUMNI COMING FOR CLASS REUNIONS

FORMER STUDENTS HERE IN LARGE NUMBERS.

List of Dates and Places for Class Breakfasts Announced—Other Plans Given Out.

Present indications point to the largest return of alumni to commencement ever known at Iowa. Visitors have been arriving all through the past week and they began to come in considerable numbers on Friday. Yesterday saw a steady stream of arrivals, and last evening more alumni had come in than were here on Monday of commencement week last year.

Among the number were several class organizers, who came to prepare the field for their classmates. In this list were A. N. Van Camp, L. '81; Mrs. Amy Stover, L. A. '98; and Donald McClain, L. A. '01. Some alumni have sent word that they will come from Washington, and others will make the trip from Massachusetts to be present.

Alumni headquarters will be in the drawing room of the Hall of Liberal Arts. Commencement tickets for alumni will be distributed here, and tickets for the class breakfast of the class of 1910 will also be sold at this place. Seniors are asked to report here to get their class badges and to buy tickets for the alumni dinner which will be held at noon on Wednesday.

Up to the present time class organizers have reported to the alumni secretary the following class breakfasts or luncheons.

- College of Liberal Arts.
 - Class of '71. Breakfast at the residence of Judge Emlin McClain, on Tuesday morning.
 - Class of '76. Breakfast at City Park, Tuesday morning at 8:30.
 - Class of '86. Breakfast at Burkley Imperial, Tuesday morning at 8:30.
 - Class of '91. Breakfast at residence of Arthur Cox, Tuesday morning.
 - Class of '96. Breakfast at residence of Samuel Whiting, Tuesday morning.
 - Class of '01. Breakfast at Country Club. Launch leaves boat house at 9 o'clock sharp.
 - Class of '06. Breakfast at City Park, Tuesday morning at 8:30.
 - Class of '08. Breakfast at Burkley Imperial, Tuesday morning at 8:30.
 - Class of '10. Breakfast at Burkley Imperial, Tuesday morning at 8:30.
- College of Law.
 - Class of '86. Breakfast at Country club, Tuesday morning at 8:30.
 - Class of '01. Luncheon at Attorney McDonald's Tuesday evening. A special table reserved for class at Alumni Dinner Wednesday noon.

Note.—Practically every class holding a reunion has arranged for a function of some kind.

A WORD OF WELCOME.

The time has come to sound a welcome to the returning alumni; and we are glad to say that there are more alumni to receive that welcome than ever before. Alumni secretary Robbins, who keeps in touch with the Iowa graduates throughout the year, is authority for the statement that there are already more alumni in the city than there were on Monday of last year, and that many more have signified their intention of returning.

On the other hand, it already is evident that more students than usual will stay for commencement. The long agitation for a better spirit toward the exercises at the close of the year is beginning to show its effects, and commencement is becoming at Iowa, as at other universities, an event which brings the old and new student together and which no one will think missing.

NOT YET.

Tucked away in one corner of the Daily Student, the student paper of the University of Indiana, we find the following interesting item: "The student body at Iowa recommend that dancing be stricken from its list of amusements. Is it because the gay exercise is too much like work?"

Even in the busy whirl of commencement week, we must pause to consider this, and to wonder how such a story ever started in its career through the University papers of the middle west. We have a great fear that our Indiana contemporary has confused us with Iowa college at Grinnell, where the dancing question was agitated last winter. Certainly the student body here is a long way from any such action as that attributed to it. We are of the firm belief that there are more and better parties here than at any school in the west. Also, we may be pardoned for objecting if others confuse us with the Grinnell institution.

Bolton Speaks.

Professor Bolton, head of the department of education, delivered the commencement address to the high school graduates at Decorah on Thursday night and at Waukon on Friday night.

Weld at Burlington.

Professor L. G. Weld went to Burlington on Friday to deliver the high school commencement address. Professor Weld has previously been invited to Burlington on the same errand.

Kappas Banquet.

Kappa Kappa Gamma held its annual banquet at the Berkley Imperial last evening. A large number of out of town guests were in attendance, and a list of clever toasts were given by alumni and active members.

Baccalaureate Sermon Today.
President James MacClure D. D., L. L. D., of Chicago, will give the annual baccalaureate sermon today in the New Science hall at four o'clock.
President MacClure is a man who is well known in the educational world and as a speaker of more than ordinary ability. He has won great favor among the students wherever he has been on account of wonderful personality and broad culture. For more than a quarter of a century he has been connected with schools of Lake Forest, and there at the student summer conference has given many inspiring addresses, which were always largely attended. He has also held the position of pastor in both Harvard and Yale universities, which positions he has filled with honor to the institutions and credit to himself. A large audience, many of whom will be out of town visitors, will doubtless hear President MacClure today.

Phi Beta Kappa Officers
Monday, June 5, Alpha chapter of Iowa, Phi Beta Kappa, elected its officers for the coming year. Professor Chas. H. Weller was chosen president, Professor H. Claude Horack vice-president, and Professor H.
C. Dorcas, secretary.

The annual commencement address of the organization will be given on Tuesday evening at 8:30 in the auditorium of the hall of Natural Science by Professor Arthur Fairbanks. Professor Fairbanks was formerly head of the department of Greek and Archaeology at Iowa, and is now head of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

The society invites the public to attend the lecture, and is desirous of getting as many as possible out to hear Professor Fairbanks.

Edda Elects.
The closing meeting of Edda Society held Tuesday, June 6, marked the finish of the most successful year that the society has enjoyed.
The Scandinavian students have taken new interest and there has resulted a great growth in both numbers and functions of the institution. Under the presidency of C. G. Gustafson of Sioux Rapids the club has risen to a place of major importance in the life of the University. The following officers have been elected for the coming year: President, Carl O. Sjullin; vice-president, J. T. Anderson;
recording secretary, Ruth Anderson; Corresponding secretary, A. Lind-blom; treasurer, C. G. Gustafsen; critic, D. A. Anderson.

To Speak at Church.
Dr. J. G. K. McClure, who delivers the baccalaureate address will speak at the Presbyterian church this evening particularly to students. His subject will be "Worthy Ends for Complete Devotion." The service begins at 8 o'clock.

Baseball Letters Awarded.

Plans For Society.

Miss Anna Klingenhagen, dean of women, has made plans to start a senior girl's honorary society next year. With this in view, the junior girls balloted recently upon names of twelve girls to represent their class. It is the intention to have these girls form an advisory council and aid Miss Klingenhagen in carrying out a system of senior advisers for the freshmen. Next fall the girls will organize into a society, which will be perpetuated by electing junior girls every spring. The girls elected to this society are, Marie Bateman, Frances Beem, Ione Brown, Anna Densler, Helen Eggert, Beulah Lasher, Ethel Martin, Louise Rhyno, Ethel Seitsinger, Esther Thomas, Helen Waldron, and Estella Weimer.

Barnum Given Baton.

Professor Howard Barnum, director of the University Band for the past two years, was presented with a baton by the members of the band at the concert given last evening on the campus. The baton, which was secured by general subscription on the part of the members of the band, is fourteen inches in length, with an ebony handle and solid silver mountings. Mr. Barnum leaves Iowa this year, having accepted a position at DePauw.

Engineers Get Positions.

Most of the senior engineers have secured positions with different concerns throughout the country. Among others, Al Fischer and Hugo Ryden have secured places with the Lackawanna railroad. Fischer will make his headquarters at Buffalo, while Ryden will go to Syracuse. Will Morrison will be with the Stark Bridge Company of Des Moines, and Mark Norris will probably go to the Iowa Engineering Company of Clinton. E. C. Gilbert will be with the Des Moines Bridge and Iron company or the Lackawanna railroad.

WILLNER'S Great Trunk and Suit Case Department

We've got a Trunk and Suit Case dept. that we can be justly proud of...only good reliable lines are shown...all mdse. carries our personal guarantee and is bound to please even though the prices are very low, considering the high standard of the goods.....

A good demonstration of this fact is shown in our solid leather case priced at $5.00...no wonder when we purchase about two thousand of them every year...other grades from $1.00 to $15.00.....

Examine our trunks at $5.45 and you'll surely see great values... heavy brass re-inforced... strapped and will withstand the hardest usage...before you go home, give us a call and see what we can do for you.....
