CLARENCE BARBOUR SPEAKS AT AUDITORIUM WEDNESDAY
Will Give An Address to the Men of the City and in the University

CLARENCE A. BARBOUR, of Rochester, N. Y., will speak at the natural science auditorium Wednesday evening at 7:30, in connection with the Men and Religion Forward Movement. Mr. Barbour is one of the three great speakers interested in this movement where the local N. M. C. A. has been fortunate enough to secure to talk here. He is the leader of the group of men who are carrying on the campaign at Cedar Rapids at present, and is the associate of Prof. R. Smith in the religious work in the department of the Young Men's Christian association. Mr. Barbour has been pastor in one of the largest churches in the state of New York, at Rochester, for the past fifteen years, and he is a very pleasing and effective talker. He is quite popular in the summer conferences of students. He is a man of strong mind, interested in many of the problems of the day, among them the public life of the city and the public school system of the country. Mr. Barbour's address will be free, and the doors of the city are open to all as well as the students.

A shy young man had been calling on "The sweetest girl in the world," but, being bashful, his visits were greatly slowed. Finally she decided to part something, so the next time he called she pointed to the Bibles in his hands and said: "I'll give you a kiss for that Rose." A crimson blush spread over his countenance, but the exchange was made after some hesitation on his part. Then he grabbed his hat and started to leave the room. "Why, where are you going?" she asked in surprise.

"To Aldous for more Roses," he exclaimed from the door.

If this physician is correct in his statements, then he has simply con- fessed that the great profession of medicine, the profession that ought to be so, as the profession of the ministry, has become as a more necessary matter of fact. We are only a few days of this medicine been prostituted to one of condition here and abroad, states that this is an amount of truth in this. As an eminent authority in the profession, he has recently made a study of various conditions here and abroad, states that only in America has the profession of medicine been prostituted to the ends of commercialism.

The authorities at Iowa City have not struck a blow at this syndicate practice a majority of the and they cannot stand by their honorable position any longer. Let the galley slave wipe. The people will applaud and stand by the man who has advanced to in breaking up this nefarious prac- tice.

The following appeared in the Cedar Rapids News last night:

"President Biemann, of the state university, has taken another progress step. He has put a back on the alleged splitting of fees. It has been charged physicians connected with the medical department of the D. I. I. have been dividing fees with dentists connected with the school and medical practice is an indefensible graft, and President Biemann will bear substantial responsibility for the situation. President Biemann has been in charge of the university, but a few weeks, but they have already been shown proof that he is in the right mind in the right place."
