IOWA TEAM STARTS ON MINNESOTA TRIP

Twenty Men Taken on Invasion of North

Big Crowd Sees Determined Warriors Off For the Hardest Struggle of the Year.

Old J. Hays' regime in last but one week has in a manner of speaking seen the Hawkeyes through the season, and the records show that the Hawkeyes are as good as ever. The Hawkeys have been taking on some of their best men in years, and the results have been wonderful.

The Hawkeyes are now fully prepared to meet the Gophers in a game that will be one of the great ones of the season. The Hawkeyes have been working on their teams for weeks, and the results have been wonderful.

The Hawkeys are full of confidence and are looking forward to a big win over the Gophers. They are well prepared and are ready for anything the Gophers can throw at them.

The Hawkeys are looking forward to a big crowd at the game. They are sure to have a fine time, and the fans are sure to enjoy themselves.

The broader education

Dr. E. V. Robinson's letter to Professor Waters urges in its foremost argument, the need for a broader education. It is the most coherent and logical argument in favor of this idea which we have seen in a long time.

The idea is sound, but it is entirely too vague to be fesed.

It is too much for the average person to understand.

The

idea is good, but without a

clear

statement

of

what it

means,

people

will not

it.

Furthermore,

idea

is too

vague

to be practical.

Without a clear

statement of what

it

means,

will

understand

it.

At the College Inn

Of the annual successes which have been engaged by New York, Boston and Chicago, some sound out more boldly than does Martha Holbrook's "The Red Mill," which comes to the College, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The tone of refinement which pervades this unusual musical play, the accurate and picturesque continuing the changing and clever story of two American tourists who have gone broke in a travelling trip and who, after many complicated situations, find themselves assisting in an escape from the old red mill, will form one of the most sensational stories ever given a musical setting. It is most fully entertaining by the introduction of songs of Victor Herbert's most tuneful music. Mr. Herbert has tried Mr. Holbrook's unusual story and setting, the lyrics with melodies that will be hummed and sung and whistled for many years to come. Among the best numbers heard was "The Red Mill," and "I've Got a Sparkle in My Step.""
