HAWKEYE MEN LEAVE FOR BADGER BATTLE

MECH ENTHUSIASM DISPLAYED AS TEAM DEPARTS

Week of Secret Practice Puts Men In Good Condition for Big Contest

Eighteen picked Iowa men left last night from the intercollegiate station for the trip to Madison, each day in their own way to prove of a great battle when the two teams get together tomorrow afternoon.

Withey supporters joined in an enthusiastic send-off for the squad with much enthusiasm of spirit. Optimism prevaled among the supporters and the men when we were given to stand that the student body was with them, and was expecting much in that battle to the win.

Intercollegiate last night was cheerfully attended by many of the men as hardly they had been through yet this year. The game was hard and fast from start to finish. The freshmen played a strong game but were unable to stop the fierce attacks of the sophomore, who advanced the half in good style. The Iowa team played a good game and took advantage of the strength in breaking through the defense.

During the past week Iowa has developed the belief, almost as much as it did before the Minnesota game.

The latter taught the men what it means to fight against a strong team and these have been much improved by this week's work. Among other things 息息 have been developed as much as it is possible to do such a thing. The tackling of a fast full back is a perfect hindrance in this respect. Robert Bruch's drilling in the execution of the play has made it possible to get them out motions correctly and his plan of probability of plays. Games that have been more or less in enemy form, can now be worked out on the right point where they can be depended upon for gain.

The team of the opponents will probably be that used in the Minnesota game, except that Inman will start the game at right half instead of Prahlmarsh, and Reidel may possibly be at left instead of Mohrle.

The back work this year has been consistent throughout and can be depended upon to be decided upon in the play near close to end, Voss Reidel has been hit hard and it is believed that such a combination will be effective. In the line Hackley and Voss

Reidel are working on the right.

Preparations Completed for Minshew Production

Rehearsals Begin for Performance on October 11

With all the songs written and the jokes all ready to perpetuate upon design, the University Glee Club is preparing for the second annual glee minstrel show now nearing completion. Of course many of the songs, verses when once new, rapidly and not to receive the life of situation which has been enough done, by the author of the music and words of the play, to fulfill all a heightened entertainment; especially for the men who can appreciate our silly tales.

The music for the production which has previously offered, will be held on November 21, will be for-sented by the faculty orchestra of ten pieces, under the leadership of Jay Barry.

Miss Nora Harmsworth, instructor in dramatic art in the English department, is also making her preparations for the tercentenary, taking the place held by Harriet Haines. In her “Docent” positions last year by the led, Miss Eva Stoller, who was a member of the cast last year.

It is now being kept regularly and will be until the time of the performance. Much of the cast will be choosen from the crew of the caste club, and this harmless amount of mischief throughout.

Considerable interest is already being shown in the production, and the chances are that a record could suck the auditorium on the evening of November 11.

Championship Tryouts Tonight

The glee club, the lesvan’s and the eagle hold regular tryouts this week.
The Philharmasonic and the teaching students also have their championship tryouts.

At these tryouts the men who are to represent the school in the championship defense will be tried in the new songs and the contest will be picked. The results will be watched with interest.

The programs of the other two cast are as follows:

Irvings

Oriental, Mother.

Deline: Affirmative, Matron and

Dixie Law: "Death and Diplomacy." M. Brown.

The cold front has shown great force in the past few days, and may be used at helots if it is believed that such a combination will be effective. In the line Hackley and Voss

Reidel are working on the right.

COMMUNICATION

What kind of a fight the Iowa team may have at Minneapolis last Saturday is evident by the following letter to the Daily Iowan from a number of alumni who saw the contest.

The letter follows:

To the Daily Iowan:

The Minnesota alumni of the U. of I. with you would convey through your paper a little message to the fanatics, logical and logical body.

On last Saturday we went over to Northern Field and saw our football team, which was sound and picked for us, but we were not too sure we could hold our own.

We have the same game, the same team, never better, but we did not have the personnel of individuals who made the score through their own prowess. The play shown by our team was better and more directed than our opponents, but the result was the same.

We are afraid that the team has not been receiving the whole-hearted support it should have received winning or losing. Now is the time to wake up and let the team know that we are behind you.

Sincerely yours,

Sarah D. Williams to Give Recital

On next Wednesday evening, Nov. 19, at 8:30, W. C. A. Williams, will give a recital at the natural science auditorium. This will be the opening number of the series of recitals to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Williams is known as America's foremost lyric tenor and his concerts are highly prized wherever he appears. It is anticipated that he will sing some special Welsh songs while in view of the fact that there are many Welsh people in this community who will appreciate this feature.

Three recitals which the Y. M. C. A. is bringing to Iowa City are in progress in the music field, and music lovers are indeed fortunate to have this opportunity to hear them. These recitals are being sold out in Waverly's back store, the price being $1.25 if paid down and $2.50 if paid in full.

There will be four concerts during the season. The single admission price to Mr. Williams' recital is $2.50.

Dents vs. Life Today

The dentist and legal area will clash in the inter-department football league this afternoon at 4:00. Both teams have made strong showings thus far, and a hard battle is expected.

Arthur Evans, the staff correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald, who is "doing" the university of the middle west, has an article in that paper today favoring Iowa. The story praises the university as one of the leading institutions of the kind in the country.

Chess Tournament Soon

Many of the university who are interested in the game of chess are getting together and making preparations for a chess tournament which they will hold next week. Last year the Y. M. C. A. started a great interest in this ancient game, and several tournaments were held during the year. So for this year the interest in the game has been greater than before, and a large number of men are signing up for the first tourney. Any one who can play chess or even learn how is welcome to join in the game. The names for the tournament next week are being signed at the bulletin board in Cliser hall. It is expected that a much greater number will take part in the game this year than there was last year with most of the oil players back again, and several new "experts" entering this fall.
