AMES VICTORIOUS IN A BITTER FIGHT

Iowa Loses After Outplaying Aggie Team

HAWKEYE FUMBLES PROVE VERY COSTLY

Murphy, Hanson and Trickey Star in Losing Battle Before Great Crowd on Iowa Field.

Losing a game which it should have won, the old gridiron eleven was forever despised among its devoted fans for the state title yesterdays when Ames got away with a 9 to 6 score.

Follower of the Iowa team were here in force, and the game was opened with a brilliant offense which the Ames team could not check. Murphy was at left end and had back for gain after gain, while wherever the Aggies had the ball there were fumbles. Ames failed to make a few downs except as failures during the first half, while Iowa had a very good running back, and when the Aggies had the ball in their own territory for two downs Murphy made two attempts at first down, and a long run free around the middle of the field. Murphy made two attempts at first down, and a long run free around the middle of the field.

The game was played on an area of less than 200 square yards, and the Iowa team scored its winning touchdown. It appeared that Ames had the ball on the Iowa 20-yard line and brought it forward to the Iowa 16-yard line. Here Murphy, playing his third year, decided to take a chance on a forward pass with yardage, and the Iowa backs to handle Burge's gain. The Aggies had the ball on the Iowa 25-yard line and brought it forward to the Iowa 21-yard line. Here Murphy, playing his third year, decided to take a chance on a forward pass with yardage, and the Iowa backs to handle Burge's gain.

The Hawkeyes capitalized. Murphy was probably the individual star of the day. Whether it was carrying the ball directly or in an effort to call back his own fumbles, intercepting fumbles forward passes, or breaking through the line, Murphy was the man who was always there. He assisted more ground on forward pass than the Iowa ball team, but he was more than any other Hawkeye. He was the shrewdest and most clever of the Iowa backs, and his kick was always on target.

For the victory, Chappell, Rutledge and Hurd were the best. Chappell and Rutledge fought bravely, and made Burge's kicks effective by their work. Hanson was the best of the Aggie backs, and hit as well as any in the state. Without much doubt, Hanson is the most valuable man on the Iowa team. The Iowa team came on the field at 12:15, followed by Ames at 12:15. O'Brien, promptly from Weyrauch and picked up the nearest of the crowd, and made Burge's kicks effective by his work. AFTER THE DARKNESS—Defeated, but not beaten.
In our opinion, that was about as expresses it. Iowa got the small end of the score in a clean game against Michigan, and for that reason we have gluttony to do, although we accept a silent vote for the future.

But we believe that everyone who went away without a greater respect for the Iowa team than when they came down here has an obligation to the men of the first half, when the Hawkeyes were knocking at the door of the Amir goal continually, and only to make the team fight the harder.

Though we may not believe that the best team with Iowa made their way to see how a team which gains only one hundred and twenty-one yards by its own efforts is better than one which gains something over twice as much, we admit that it did with fairly and square—But we have nothing but admiration for everyone who wore the old gold yesterday.
May there be many such teams at Iowa!

YESTERDAY'S TIMES

Surprise party marked the play of the big football team yesterday. Wisconsin held Minnesota, playing without Captain Pickering, in a tie, thus beating the Big Eight championship up in the air. Chicago university completely upset the hope by winning Cornell, thus proving more than anything else the uncertainty of the new football. Des Moines college defeated Grinnell. Princeton beat Yale, and Syracuse got the best of the Carlisle Indians. Illinois and Northwestern played a peculiar game, each scoring repeatedly. The scores follow:

Kansas 3, Arkansas 9,

Butler 9, Penn State 0.

Nebraska 29, Kansas 4.

Des Moines 6, Grinnell 0.

There is deep reason in the popularity of Max Mayer's clothing of charmers and that reason is value. The Wooltex will give you service and the shape and comfort are always.

Gentlemen and Ladies

Although we are not in the habit of printing advertisements in any paper, yet we feel we are justified in making the following statement in connection with the sale of Pictures from the Theatre:

"To the Public:" Knights of Photography,

"We have received from the Chicago Dime Museum a collection of pictures from the Grand Theatre of the most recent productions. The pictures are well drawn and will be sold at prices universally lower than in any store in the city. We have no objection to such work being reproduced by other photographers, but we feel the necessity of calling attention to the fact that the pictures have been specially selected for the purpose of exercising a wholesome influence on the young and old. They are sold at prices that are far below the cost of materials and labor, and we feel that the public is entitled to the benefit of such pictures.
