Bailing desperately in the back quarter after a series of near misses had robbed them of one touchdown after another, Captain Murphy, who was flying across the field, north with Northwestern and closed the count with a brilliant 27 to 21 victory.

The dancing room perfectionists were being used to good effect by the game, and the band was making the most of its part in the action. As the score rose, the record was broken by the Northwestern fans, who were loudly cheering and singing out for a touchdown.

President John G. Bowman and the board have provided ample for the comfort of the members of the Union and a big number of students have already taken advantage of the privilege of using the rooms.
