THE DAIRY IOWAN

NEW DECORATIONS PLANNED
FOR SUFFRAGETTE CELEBRATIONS

Christmas Trees Manifested in the Decorations

At a meeting held at the Union last evening the suffragette committee met and planned some important features of the big party to be held December 15. Greeting cards will be sent to all the prominent and the committee feels confident that their extra efforts will be rewarded by the appreciation of the student body. Instead of the conventional while toiling, which will have been used and re-used by past forums, this year's forums will exhibit themselves under a canopy entirely unique. It is planned to run alternating rows of red and white streamers from the front to the rear, giving a magnificent view of the electric lights. The Christmas idea will be furthered by the use of holly, spruce, and an inexpensive amount of dust. Santa Claus will step on the podium and it is thought that he will make an "enter- taining" visit in the Christmas entertainment.

About this feature, however, the Democrats are uncertain. It is, as some say, that the good old solid forum will distribute this feature with the new forum, and some say that it will be a bit of a fad.

President Davis in being this year to provide comfort for those in the gallery. The change and arrangement of the decorations are such as to give a soft golden lighting and the method of placing of the lighting will be by the present movement.

A large gallery crown is expected to change the first frame always to meet entertaining from the auditorium's viewpoint.

The change for the affair have not been placed on sale yet but they will be distributed among the forums this week.

Notice to Graduate Students

All candidates for the Degree of Master's before Dec. 15, 1911, are required to present their thesis topic for approval before Dec. 5, 1911, or they have already done so. (See page 19.)

Graduates are hereby notified that, according to the present rules, no student shall be assigned an examination topic to be defended before him. It is the policy to be approved by the Graduate Faculty. All students who have not selected their examination topic for the degree, but have not yet entered in candidacy, should consult their respective departments at once and report to the director.

Waiting Room Improved

Owing to the increased number of students the "secretary's quarters" at the Dental Clinic, the Wash Lab, have been supplied with more furniture and a table folding copies of "Sleeping Car" tickets, a newsboy stationed at the door, and in general a much better atmosphere.

Basketball Notice

All basketball candidates must report to the gymnasium the afternoon of the 9th for regular practice.

Iowa's football schedule next year will be in all probability look much like the one through which4 Hawkeye's players have just passed. Five of the seven teams which were not during the 1911 season are practically certain of places on the Hawkeye sched-

Drake would probably be an ever closer second to be played with at Ankeny and other small towns; but the attention of the Des Moines papers has fixed the Drake solicitors to believe that they will be "big league" class, and they will probably continue to score an ever closer second to be played with at Ankeny and other small towns.

The usual process of picking all-star teams has tried to beautify the Simon's of Drake credit for being almost, if not quite, the equal of Kettering, Normal, and any other backfield performers. Perhaps he is not all this, and more, we have not seen him in action, and we are not in a position in that respect. Yet there are facts in his record which do not seem to point in this direction. Let us ask, and answer a few questions.

Who was he, in the Kansas game, that furnished a punt and gave the Jackhorses their first touch-down enough to win the game? Who, in the Grinnell game, missed another punt, which was recovered by the Grinnell out, Mary, and almost converted into another touchdown? Who, in the Washington game, missed another punt and thereby gave the St. Louis team the touch-down that enabled it to tie with Drake? And, last, but not least, who was it, when his team was losing for the state and Missouri championships, furnished the last kick of the Ames game and gave the Fortune's the victory?

The answer is all of these questions, it appears, our own Men. Leader correctly, in Simon's of Drake. Standards of what constitutes a successful football player evidently vary; for on Sunday we read in a Des Moines paper that "Simon's of Drake was undoubtedly the greatest individual player of the season. Here, we would figure differently."
