Iowa vs Normal Tomorrow Night

President John G. Bowman will deliver the address at the annual mid-year convocation, which will be held this year on February 12. The occasion this year will be the 50th annual in the history of the university.

A list of candidates for degrees was announced yesterday by Registrar Eumon. Ten will graduate from the college of liberal arts, three from music, and three from medicine. The candidates from the college of law have not been named. The list follows:

Edward Art
Emma Ann, Sister
Kidd, Harding, Captain, Cadet, 3-10-11.

In conversation with a representative of the Daily Iowan, Mr. Cumming stated his views on the situation as follows:

The study of graphic and plastic art in America is still a new branch of education and is not being widely or uniformly or understood by the average educator. There is scarcely any relation between studying the subjects of art and regular teaching of art. That which is made in a book or bears into a few ears is not taught about art. The average teacher has a studio art and has been too long concerned with Mr. Cumming that he is able to cope with the average student who is new to him.
