Christian Association Planning Big Religious Campaign

A great religious campaign is being promoted at Iowa State College by the Y. W. C. A., which will be held during the second week in March. This campaign will be known as the "Mystic Envoys" and it will be in the form of a series of religious meetings. It is intended to visit the two major cities in various club and boarding houses, and several larger meetings will be held at some convention places, by means of the big men in religious work in this country. The campaign is to be carried on simultaneously with the Y. W. C. A. The committee in charge is intending to appear no effort to make the campaign one of the most significant and effective ever for the year.

John L. Gillin, professor of the department of political economy and sociology, was born October 12, 1871, in Black Hawk county, Iowa. He received his early education in the public schools of this county, and from 1888 to 1890 attended Iowa University at the capital. In 1891 he was admitted to the University of Michigan, where he continued his studies for four years, receiving the B.A. degree in 1895. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1896, and received his LL.D. degree from the University of Iowa in 1898. At the same time he was attending Columbia University, where he studied in the diploma school of the College of Political Science. In 1901 he received his Ph.D. degree from Columbia University.

Prof. Gillin's first teaching position was at Ashland College, located at Ashland, Ohio, where he taught the subjects of the social sciences and history for a period of two years. In 1907 he went to the State University of Iowa, where he became an instructor and in 1901 he was assistant professor, and in 1902 he was assistant professor. In 1915 he attained the degree of professor.
