THE ONLY RIGHT SPOT IN TOWN

Diller before it goes to the worthless of its audience a week from today. To start, a whole, hallowed, fancy comedy was chosen for production because actresses are better fitted to give such items than the humor plays. All arrangements have been completed at the Cobden for the two performances. The music performance will be as a popular page and will offer an opportunity for townspeople to see a typical university play. The evening performance will probably be stronger as the main effect of the amateur thespians will be presented to that performance. For the evening, a special orchestra will be engaged.
