Ambrose Poers is Called Home

Daley Iowan Cartoon Called Away

For Freshman of Semester

Take Charge of Papers

It was with surprise that the students of the University, hearing that Ambrose Poers had gone to his home for his health in Buffalo. His sudden departure was due to an urticarial rash which had begun in large plaques in that place. His friends suddenly failed him, and as Poers had left charge of the paper today, he was considered the only available person to run the paper. It may be possible that he will be able to return next semester although the rash was at one time too severe for him to continue through the football season.

At present a sub-committee consisting of Mr. W. A. B. Smith, Mr. R. B. Smith, and Mr. S. G. Smith are working on a committee to undo all suhich would be very much appreciated by the students.

The “Common Law”

There seems to be a deep-seated degree in the minds of most people after having read an absorbingly informative book, to see the characters portrayed in the book actually appear in real life, to exchange the same sentiments, express the same emotions, fight the same battles and win the same results in the lives as they did in the cold type.
