ENGINEERS TO PLAY DENTISTS
First Interdepartment Game to be Piped Next Saturday on Iowa Field

Interdepartment managers of athletics have arranged the schedule for the football season of the Interdepartment League. The opening game is the only one for which a definite date is set. This will be played on Friday on Iowa field, between the dental and engineering teams. The rest of the schedule is arranged as follows:

Dental vs. pharmacists, medics vs. dentists, engineers vs. pharmacists, liberal arts vs. medics, dental vs. engineers, engineers vs. dentists, liberal arts vs. dental, medics vs. engineers. Interdepartment manager of the athletic department is Mr. Schroeder’s management.

Ten minute quarters will be the unit in the games played in the league, except in the final championship contest, when the full period is allowed. The officials to be chosen by the captains and managers. All men will be eligible except those working on the varsity and freshmen against.

CHICAGO PAPERS ARE HANDING BEAR DOOR
LOOK FOR “AWFUL” GAME NEXT SATURDAY - MISREPRESENT CONDITION OF IOWA TEAM

Hold Self-barrooms Last Evening Interdepartmental Manager of the athletic department announces that the game between the varsity and the department team will be held in Chicago on Saturday. The game between the varsity and the department team will be held in Chicago on Saturday.

The Chicago papers are still voicing their belief that the Hawkeyes are due to give the Maroons an awful time on Saturday, and the Examiner being the latest to break into print with some dark-hued remarks on Iowa bear door. The Examiner’s report follows the general plan of crediting Iowa with excessive speed and a heavy and experienced line. We are willing to stand for the high speed clause, but must denounce to the allegations of weight and years in the make up of the forward wall.

The article contains a surprising amount of misinformation, such as statements that Bowles is still playing, that Curry broke his leg in practice, and Kirk, the convalescent, doing service at right tackle. Kirk’s weight is needed more in the line than behind it, according to the way the coaches figure, as good backs are plentiful this year and heavy and shifty linemen are not. Kirk is big enough, but is new at the position and he had little time to learn it. A hard workout is being carried on tonight in order to polish off the various offenses and defenses, with another and shorter mixing being tomorrow. Then on Friday all hands get under way for Chicago, there to hold a final signal practice Friday afternoon before the big game.
