Two days vacation will in all pro-

from the Tri Delta house.

Mr. Levi S. Willard was appointed chairman of the sub-committee.

The granting of the vacation behavior. If a class is willing to make up the work lost on Monday by attending classes this coming Saturday, the vacation will be granted. Several classes have already favorably passed on the measure, and by noon tomorrow all classes will have made their decisions known. It is not thought that there will be any dissenting votes as nearly all wish to go home to vote.

It is said that a move will be made in all the colleges for the granting of a two day's vacation. It may be possible that some of the other coltages will follow the action taken by
