SPLENDID FACE
IRVING AND ERO-IRVINS
Irving and Ero Literary Societies
Put on Excellent Face
Last Night
One of the best faces ever given, in close hall was put on last night by the Irving and Fredericlan literary societies. Although not extremely advertised, a large audience was present to enjoy the confessions that followed one another in rapid succession. The scenery was prepared by those taking part in the face, and was something out of the ordinary. The act was skillfully portrayed by a remarkably beautiful large palm that graced the bands of the river.

Dale Cotton, Mona Bruce, and Fred Marcum were members taking part in the presentation of the faces, while under the splendid name of "The Loan of a Lover." All the parts were given without a flaw, the entire cast done being well adapted to the character represented. Frank Ruskin as Peter B. Stone brought forth many of laughter by his humorous failures and final success in court. Mona Bruce, playing the part of Gertrude, represented the poor maiden in perfect humor. Medium Madison as interpreted by Dale Cotton was very clever, and though a difficult part, was speedily well attem. Morley MacNeal showed much stage talent as Captain Amsenewh. No special credit was given to the garden scene of the faces, or given to any one of the cast, as all gave their parts without any room for criticism.

THE most stylish people you know; those who buy the best things to wear that they can find; people who don't care what it costs; such people don't wear any better clothes,--suits, overcoats,--than we're selling every day, made especially for us by Hart Schaffner & Marx.

You can pay a lot more money for clothes than we charge for these; but you'll not get more value for your money. There's no way to make better clothes than you'll find here, ready to wear.

These fall overcoats were intended primarily for men, but the women seem to like them fully as well. Many outdoor girls and women, especially those who drive a good deal, are using Hart Schaffner & Marx overcoats. They are fine looking coats on anyone, men or women.

Let us prove these statements for you any day; the styles are lively; the fit will suit you; the prices are right.

HAWKEYES LEAVE FOR
BATTLE WITH HOOSIERS

EXPERT TO ARRIVE IN IN-

Hoosiers are Heavier Than Hawk-

Chance to Win Game.

Twenty-two men, with the trainers, coaches, and other necessary impediments of a high class football team, left last evening over the long trail which leads to Indianapolis and the waiting Hunt-siders. Two full teams were taken by the Hawkeyes, including the following men: Captain Hanson, Clemson, London, Houghton, Gilliland, Kirk, Trickey, Breslauer, Schulte, Bowa, Gudrondson, Bird, Burkley, Molly, Curry, Dick, Parsons, Van Meter, W. Penningerth, McGinnis, Breslauer, and L. Penningerth.

The Hoosiers expect to arrive in Indianapolis this afternoon at about three o'clock, although it will probably be somewhat later when they get there. A short signal practice will be held somewhere in the city limits, ending the work in preparation for the conflict with the Hoosiers.

Expert to Arrive in Indianapolis This Afternoon to Practice

Hoosiers are Heavier Than Hawkeyes—Indian Line is Said to be Strong—Hawkeye Have Good Chance to Win Game.

The Hawkeyes expect to arrive in Indianapolis this afternoon at about three o'clock, although it will probably be somewhat later when they get there. A short signal practice will be held somewhere in the city limits, ending the work in preparation for the conflict with the Hoosiers.

Last evening's practice was the most satisfactory held since the week before the Minnesota game. Although outplayed by the freshmen at first, largely because of back injuries, the varsity finally got together and began to score at will. The substitution of Van Meter and Curry for Parsons and Dick at the halves caused a marked improvement in the work of the team, but the regulars, when used later with the second team, showed considerable improvement...McGinnis fumbled considerably at first, and these finally gave the rushers a chance to score a touchdown when Brown took a forward pass from Swender and raced twenty-five yards for the count.

Curry was in great form when he went in as half back in the place of Dick, and was even better when he played at quarter for the second team. The rushers couldn't get their fingers on the slippery little dodger, and he went over for touch downs about as often as he took the ball. Parsons and Penningerth also went far for long gains here.

The Iowa line-up for the start of the game will probably be: Hughson, center; Clemens, right guard; Captain Hanson, left guard; Kirk, right tackle; Trickey, left tackle; Parsons, right end; McGinnis, left end; Molly, quarter; Parsons, right half; Dick, left half; McGinnis full back. The only positions will be: Parsons and McGinnis also every race, who as a freshman last year won every race, has made the best showing, winning both the two and three mile events. Tyler, another former Iowa, has made the second on both occasions. Brunner has come in third and Mortimer fourth, with Cook fifth. The total points won by the leading candidates in the two preliminary races are: Brunner 41, Tyler 39, Brunnor 37, Mortimer 33, Cook 32, Nobo-hart 30, Jones 29, Rechall 24, McKi

CROSS COUNTRY
ON SATURDAY

Last Race of Season to Determine Team Which Will Represent Iowa at Framont

The last and most important of the series of three cross-country races held to determine the make-up of the Iowa team which will run in the annual Big Nine event at Northwestern will pursue tomorrow afternoon, starting at 1:45 from Iowa field. The regulation course will be used, and the full five-mile distance will be covered.

The coming race will be the real test of the men, and the showings made in it will be the most important in determining the make-up of the Iowa team. To date, Brunner, who as a freshman last year won every race, has made the best showing, winning both the two and
former Iowa, has made
the second on both occasions. Brunner has come in third and Mortimer
