MONSTER ASSEMBLY FOR THIS MORNING

Red B. Smith and Raymond Robins to be Speakers

Classes are Diminished—Smith formerly of Lone Tree—Robins a Social Worker Now in Chicago—Beginning of Big Y. M. C. A. Campaign.

This morning at 10:00, o'clock, I was to hold one of the largest assemblies ever known here. The others will probably take in about one of the smallest classes of students ever. It is the first day of the formal term, and already several meetings have been held. The most important of these has been the greeting to the students and a very valuable course in Social Work.

At 10:00 o'clock, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Mary Mattam, M. D., 34, recently a missionary in Africa, West Africa. She is the daughter of late Mr. and Mrs. Grubin, and has been a missionary in the country for several years.

The meeting was then opened by the principal, who announced that the students would have an opportunity to introduce themselves to the new students.

The assembly was then adjourned.

INDOOR SPORTS IN FULL SWING NOW

HANDBALL RECOMMENDED

Handball has been recommended by the Gymnastics Director as an excellent sport for the winter season. It is a game that requires quick reflexes and good coordination.

The indoor gymnasium has been opened for the winter season. The gymnasium is equipped with the latest in handball equipment and rules.

ANSWER MADE TO STUDENT LETTER

The following letter was written to the President of the University:

Dear President,

I am writing to express my concern about the lack of adequate facilities for student activities. As a member of the student body, I feel that the university should provide a more comprehensive range of extracurricular activities to support the educational mission of the institution.

Sincerely,

Student Letter

The following reply was sent to the student:

Dear Student,

Thank you for your letter regarding the lack of extracurricular activities. The university is committed to providing a comprehensive range of opportunities for students to engage in activities that complement their academic pursuits. Please feel free to suggest specific activities or initiatives you believe would be valuable for the student body.

Sincerely,

President

It's Basketball in Athletics Now

Schedule Not Quite Ready Yet—Three Are Hard in Work Under Thomas

Two big nine games—Ames may be added to list this week—Grinnell gives choice—Thomas—Coaches Squad.

Manager Kellogg is now at work on the remainder of the schedule for the friday basketball team, and has added two important dates to the big nine games already announced. These are the annual clashes with Grinnell. The first will be at Iowa City on January 24, and the return game at Grinnell on February 21. These games have always, heretofore, determined the state title and have accordingly been the most important games.

Ames may be added to the schedule this year, as the Aggies will have a suitable floor on which to play when the basketball season opens. Other state games are planned, but no definite dates have been arranged.

The opening game of the season will be all probability be played on Dec. 15, with Westmayn or Leander Clark as the opponents.

Iowa authorities took occasion yesterday to brand as false the report that Lawyer, the former Minnesota star, had refused to coach the Iowa team. Lawyer applied for the place, but his offer was rejected more than two weeks ago, and the position was given to Thomas, who has made the squad for some time. The report was sent out under a Minneapolis date line and announced that Lawyer had just refused the offer.

Thomas' squad of candidates has increased in size daily since the action began, and has begun to show considerable promise. Dick Brandt, Schulte, Gilliland, Kirk, and other members of the football squad have come out, and there, added to the array of veterans, substitutes, 1912 freshmen, and recruits who have not appeared before, have given the coach a big number of men, most of them more or less seasoned in the art of basket tossing.

The fact that university students are awakening to the use of good music in securing a liberal education, is to be again proved at Penn. This season, The present Grand Opera season, conducted by the Metropolitan Opera Co., is to be placed before the students at reduced prices. The houses of last year's contract, with the student body above this reduction to be again allowed. Through the efforts of one of the directors of the Metropolitan Opera Co., who is also a trustee of Penn, this has been.

The annual long distance tryouts for the debating team of Cedar Rapids University will take place on December 4th. Thirty men have signed their applications to try out at this time. No men have been selected for most of these. The order of speaking has been arranged and the men will each be allowed to speak for seven minutes. Men holding opposite positions on the list will take the affirmative side of the question. They will debate on "Resolved that a system of federal control should be substituted for the Sherman Antitrust Law."

The student editors of the different publications of Wisconsin university are having considerable discussion as to who should be entitled to wear the journalistic cap. This was provided for by a recent vote of the athletic committees. The meeting of the editors was adjourned on after two hours of heated discussion, with no decision reached as to just who should receive these insignias of honor. The editor of the year, the news page, and the business managers have already received them.
