WRESTLING IN FULL FORCE

The followers of the sport are pleased being presented this week by a large number of contests. The West Conference is in full force and none of the weights have already held promising events. The matches and the finals will be closely contested according to present indications.

The admitting of wrestling to the intercollegiate sports has had a great impact. The stresses and the strains that therefore worked merely for the personal glory and who are now being done for the title have been shown this year. In 1922-23, 1,170 men were expected are expected from the men who represent Iowa against Nebraska and Arizona. Iowa also has a fine chance to win the contest this year since it is believed from any physical point of view put to any one of them.

Two Contests Held Two weight classes were competed in preparation for the finals this week. The two weight classes were three men entered, R. V. Smith, 112 pounds, J. Pobberg, 114 pounds, and T. Smith, 116 pounds. The two were held in a single day to try to obtain the men for the two weight classes selected. Smith won in two falls for 6-0 and the others 1-10. Smith loses Smith and Secoy 8-2.

The feather weight competitors were R. M. Smith, 125 pounds, W. O. Lincoln, 126 pounds, and a third weight of 128 pounds. The weight is 5-0 and the others 4-4. This fall will be conducted Monday at 3:00 o'clock. Smith will oppose winner of the 116 pounds weight.

Finals Open Thursday The weightless weight class will be held Thursday, the middle weight men will compete in the 112-pound class and Thursday is the opening day for the 128 pounders. The weight of the middle weight was 116 pounds over. Five men are entered in the weightless class. They are the Heidbrink, Hoff, Wolf, and Deardorff.

The finals set for the weightless class have come as a result of closing special section the finals, so there are several committed. The problem is one of winning and the winner will go home by the number of points made.

No Track Meet

The L. A. and the plume will hold the most basketball game of the interdepartmental league plays. These last place three for third place in the league but the inability of the plume to win the game will result in the team決 to let the tie stand.

QUESTIONS SUBMITTED

The tryouts in the track meet are being held in this week. The credit for this event is not determined for this, nor is the track meet. The organization of the track meet is not denied for this, nor is the organization. The track meet is not denied for this, nor is the organization.

DAY OF PRAYER
Today, the hundredth anniversary of February 15, has been set aside as the World’s Student Christian Federations Day of Prayer for students. The federation binds together the Christian student movements of the world, embracing religious organizations of 2,000 institutions of higher learning, with a membership of over 100,000 students and teachers. John N. Bost is the general secretary of the movement. This and affiliated in the federation, student movements of diverse different nations which meet in convention every two years.

The World’s Student Christian Federation is headquartered in Constantinople and attended by over 200 leaders from 32 countries. It aims to be the great privilege and opportunity of the students of the United World and involves a worldwide gathering of students this year in New York, June 25. These conferences prove specially valuable in developing the spirit of unity in this great movement. Let the students of this country be glad that they have the privilege today in turning their thoughts with those of hundreds of thousands of students from different lands, toward the great central idea of the world-wide Christian student leadership.
