President of Carthage College will deliver address at services this afternoon.

Dr. H. D. Hoover, president of Carthage College, will speak at the university Vesper service Sunday afternoon in the auditorium. Dr. Hoover holds the chair of philosophy and liberal literature as Carthage college. He is a 1894 alumnus.

SENATOR KEYSON AND GOVERNOR CLARK MAY SPEAK AT UNIVERSITY DINNER

Keyes set for March thirteenth at the neighboring College dining room. Speaker will be Professor Walter A. F. Committee.

With various positions to assume the noted speakers will be speaking for the general university dinner to occur Thursday, March 13th this being the greatest event of the kind that Carthage college. Senator Keyson, junior United States senator from Iowa and George Clark, governor of Iowa, are the noted alumni whom on this date is being arranged.

While it is impossible to assure the attendance of Senator Keyson in public life as Senator Keyson and Governor Clark, every effort to that end will be made by Professor C. H. Weiler and the members of the Greater University Committee in charge of the dinner. As congressional affairs are very much to the fore these days, William Keyson will probably be able to spare a little time from executive duties to come back to his alma mater.

Each of these prominent alumni is well and favorably known throughout the state as well as nationally. The presence of these statesmen at the Greater University Committee foundation will be a great addition to the dinner program. The dinner will be free. The lecture will stars. The name of the play is to be announced.

MINI-HAWKEYE BUT LUCK IS BAD

NORTHWESTERS DEVOUR IOWA BY A SCORE OF 40 TO 11 IN A HARD-FIGHTED GAME

Hawkeyes Miss Many Good Chances For Rabbit—Game was Rough and Pennsylva-nia

Hard luck was the fate of the Iowa basketball team in their big game last night. The game was interesting from start to finish but Iowa could not hit the basket.

Turn after time rolled on the ball dangerously close to the edge but it always dropped on the wrong side of the iron ring. The game resulted in a tie for the 19th time and 21 for Iowa.

The Hawkeyes played their opponents even on the floor, and it is felt probably the best hit a ball a little more than their share of the time but the basket shooting was off. The Hawkeyes gave their turn in the lead and the shot in the final period and rolled on the ball two feet, the score standing 12 to 1 at the end of the half.

Lamke Goes Parsons

The second half was even and the visitors working hard to keep their margin safe. Parsons, whose work against Lamke, the electrified Purple star, was the feature of the event, was knocked to the floor in the third quarter. When Lamke was permitted to get loose for two goals and Winkle and Park each got one. Gardner and Greaves Iowa's only hit was the ladder and Park, the guilt, scoring two, the score standing 12 to 1 at the end of the half.

REPRESENTATIVE OCAST

Miss Hanzelko Tool, university junior, received her degree for completion of requirements, February 27th, for the bachelor of arts degree in home economics.

Miss Tool's place will be taken by T. H. Wamsley, a student in the graduate college. Mr. Wamsley comes from Brighten and has been attending the university for a number of years, having taken two degrees from the college of liberal arts.
