LINDERMAN CHOSEN BASEBALL COACH

FORMER BOSTON STAR TO DRILL HAWKEYES IN LEADING AMERCAN SPORT

Comes From Charles City—Comes Highly Recommended — Takes Charge March 27—Will Take Charge of a Veteran Team.

Viva Lindeman of Charles City, Iowa has been engaged to coach the Iowa baseball team for the coming season. Lindeman comes here with a remarkable reputation as a player and coach, having been a regular on the Boston National League club for three years. While with this aggregation, he made an enviable record for himself and during the last season with this team he was considered one of the sensations in the league. His career was cut short by an injury to his arm which compelled him to give up his profession. After the majors, he successfully coached a number of universities in the east.

The last two seasons, Lindeman has been at Charles City playing on the fast semi-pro team from that place. He is well known throughout the state and comes to Iowa with the best of recommendations, one especially from Ted Green the former coach of the Hawkeyes. Green managed the Charles City team on which Lindeman has been a member and in an interview with the former authority, he says that he regards the acquisition of the Boston star, as the best thing that could be done by the athletic board.

Iowa Has Fine Schedule

With a schedule which has not been equaled in the history of baseball at Iowa and a coach who is second to none in the west, the Iowa team will bear watching when the season opens on the seventh of April.

Dindeman will practically have a veteran team when he takes charge of the squad and in addition many promising candidates from the freshmen team of last year. Nothing short of a miracle will prevent the wearers of the Old Gold from having the strongest baseball team that it has had for many years.

The new coach will take charge of the men immediately after the spring vacation and until that time Captain Von Lockum and a few of the older members of the team will teach the promising youngsters the fundamentals of the game.

BACONIAN CLUB

Regular meeting of the Baconian club will be held in the new physics hall this evening at 7:30. The subject for the evening will be "Recent Progress in Geology". It will be discussed as follows: General and economic geology, Professor Geo. F. Kay; physiographic geology, Professor A. C. Trowbridge; paleontology, Mr. A. O. Thomas. The public is cordally invited.

CHINESE STUDENT GIVES CLEAR IDEA OF ORIENT

T. L. Ling Lectures on "China Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" at Mid-Week Meeting

China, past and present, was the theme of T. L. Ling's lecture Wednday evening at the mid-week meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Ling took for the body of his address the religion of China as it is and as it was. He demonstrated that the religions of Confucius and Christ were the same and that Confusius did not believe in idols.

He said that people have wrong impressions of China and stated that nearly every town in China had it's Christian church and school. He stated that China is becoming christianized very rapidly, much faster than many people think.

In addition to the main theme of the evening he also brought out and explained several other mistaken ideas of the Americans concerning customs in China.

MARSHALL LAW PROGRAM

The Marshall Law society will hold their regular meeting in their room in the law building tonight. The program is a moot trial, in which a girl will be tried for the murder of her father.

The attorneys for the state are: W. Russel, V. Johnson and H. W. Raymond. The defense will be represented by: George Allen, James Reaney and W. H. McGruder.

PHI BETA KAPPA CHOICE IS MADE

IOWA UNIVERSITY CHAPTER NAMES FOURTEEN STUDENTS FOR BIG HONOR

Announcement Was Mad Last Evening—Three Men in List—All Men Are Well Known—Girls Show Superority in Study.

Announcement was made last evening of the selections of Phi Beta Kappa at Iowa for the current year. Phi Beta Kappa is the honorary scholarship fraternity election which is one of the highest honors a student can attain as a result of four years hard study. Requirements are strict and those voted the fraternity's membership at the completion of their four years' college course is a honor distinct through the fact that it shows merit and excellency in all work along scholarship lines.

It is interesting to note that out of the fourteen named for the big honor, but three of these are boys. Whether or not this is significant as to the scholarship ability of the male sex is a point raised for dispute every spring when announcement of those who have been fortunate in being selected is made. It so happen sthat all chosen this year are from Iowa and four of them reside in Iowa City.

The three boys are very well known to Iowa students. Harry Gould has been a prominent member of the Irving literary society ever since entrance to the university in 1909. He has taken a prominent part in debates of the society and its oratorical contests and has made himself extremely popular with other members of the societies.

Reece Stuart is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and well known for his ability in school affairs, having been a member of several of the honorary class societies and appointed in several instances on formal party committees.

Herrington Pollard is a member of the Beta fraternity and equally well known throughout school.

The complete list follows.

Augusta Altfillisch, Maquoketa.

Alice Bothell, Iowa City.

Alice Elizabeth Brooks, Hedrick.

Genevieve Brown, Ottumwa.

Harry Herbert Gould, Iowa City.

Florance Magown, Iowa City.

DEBATERS CLASH FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

University Championship Will be Thrashed Out at Auditorium Tonight

What the Leaders Say

H. M. Reed, leader of Zetagathian team: "We realize that we are practically deciding the championship for two years to come. We expect to put up a hard fight and hope to win."

Fexis Ross, leader of the Philomathean team declined last night to make a statement.

Tonight, in the science auditorium, the championship of the university in debate will be decided by the teams representing Philomathean and Zetagathian. The winning team receives a prize of fifty dollars, as well as winning the championship of the university.

The question under discussion is, "Resolved, that the president of the United States should be elected for a term of six years, ineligible for re-election, constitutionality granted."

The affirmative will be upheld for Philomathean by Felix Ross, Leslie Farnham, and Guy G. Gabrielson, and the question will be denied for Zetagathian by Theodore Garfield, Howard Holt and Harry Reed.

This contest is the most interesting, as well as the most important forensic event of the year, aside from the intercollegiate debates, and the adherents of both teams are expected in force, as well as all others who are interested in collegiate debating.

HAWKEYE STORIES TO BE IN SOON

Prize of $10.00 to be Awarded Best Short Story For Publication in the Junior Annual Story writers of the university have only a week more to get their manuscripts ready for the short story contest conducted by the Hawkeye board. All stories for publication must be handed into the office by March 15. The name of the author is not to appear on the story but be handed in on a separate slip.

The stories may concern any kind of life, college or otherwise. This provision allows writers great freedom of subject matter and treatment and will enable them to do their best work. As to length, such manuscript is restricted to 4000 words.

As was done last year the winning story will appear in the literary department of the Hawkeye and a prize of $10.00 will be awarded the winner.

The judges for the contest are Professor Hunt, Professor Myers, and Miss Beryl Hart, all of whom are instructors in the English department.

"Obeying concience" will be the topic for discussion at the Congregational C. E. next Sunday. All are welcome.

HONORARY BASKETBALL FIVES ARE GIVEN OUT

BERRY THE IOWA GUARD NAMED ON FIRST TEAM—GARDNER ON SECOND

General Average of Players Under Par This Year—Drake Has Lost Every Game—Simpson Shows up Well—Grinnell in Lead.

First Team

Tharpe, Grinnell; forward.

Graves, Simpson; forward.

Loper, Grinnell; center.

Berry, Iowa; guard.

Eagan, Grinnell; guard (Captain)

Second Team

Compton, Grinnell; forward.

Gardner, Iowa; forward.

Sauer, Simpson; center.

Pifer, Simpson; guard.

Parsons, Iowa; guard.

The above selections for all-Iowa honorary fives are based on recommendations, made by officials and coaches who watched the various players in action during the season. The writer has made every effort to determine the merits of the players eligible for consideration and to select those best entitled to the honor.

The first team can be selected with but little difficulty as the men who are chosen for premier honors stand out so far as to leave little room for doubt or quibbling. A number of remarkable players have been developed this year in the state but as a whole they are not well distributed on the different teams. Grinnell was fortunate in having a well balanced team, the majority of whom were stars, that had little trouble in winning the state title.

The general average of the teams in the state was mediocre compared to what it has been in former years. Ames and Iowa were noticeably weak but the Hawkeyes won second honors by decisively defeating Cornell and the Aggies. Drake, as usual, was a disappointment and it lost all of the games in which it played. Simpson boasted of a winning combination but, on account of not having met the stronger teams in the state, its strength cannot be ascertained.

There is no question but that Tharpe of Grinnell and Graves of Simpson are deserving of the forward positions on the first team. They have been the stars of their respective fives and are the equal of any players who have been developed in the state. Tharpe can throw a basket from any angle or position on the floor and has a good eye from the foul line. Compton of Grinnell and Gardner of Iowa are selected for the second team because of their consistent work from the beginning of the season. Other forwards worthy of mention are Stookey of Coe, Baird of Cornell and Bisbie of Ames.

The center belongs to Loper of Grinnell because of his all around

SUPPORT DEBATE

Several years ago, when only a few men were out for football, and we were steadily losing our games, a small body of enthusiastic supporters started the movement that resulted in the football spirit of Iowa today.

What has been done in football can and should be done in forensics. Iowa has held for several years, and still holds, the championship of the Central Debating Circuit. Next year will decide whether we hold of lose this position. If this is to be done, all our available debating material must get out for the intercollegiate try-outs. But that is not enough. We must have the spirit of the university behind us if we are to win.

The inter-society debate tonight will decide the university championship for the six years just ending. But more important is the fact, that from this contest, th most important of the year, comes a large proportion of our intercollegiate debaters for next two years.

For the maintanence of our standing in the Central Debating Circuit, and to insure our winning in the future as we have done in the past, it is essential that every supporter of forensic activities be present at the championship contest tonight.

NOTICE TO ZETS

All Zets are requested to meet at Zet hall tonight promptly at 7:00 o'clock. Every one is requested to be on hand to show your spirit for the team.

VAUDEVILLE REMAINS AT USUAL STANDARD

Ethel May Continues to Entertain and Mystify Her Audience

With the bill opening by Tegge and Daniels the German Couple, in a clever singing and talking act the vaudeville was presented with success to the fair sized audience at Englert's theatre last evening.

Helen Gannon, who styles herself the Whistling Prima Donna, put on a very pleasing act and received much applause. Favorable comment was heard on her selections of classical music.

The Rosdell Singing Trio is the headliner for the week, capably rendered several difficult selections. Their work in giving the "Sextette from Lucia" was especially good, both in execution and in harmony.

Ethel May, The Mystery Girl continues to perplex and enlighten her audience. Her work has been entertaining and has caused much talk and comment.

The faculty at Oregon university is considering a radical revision of the college calendar. They propose to divide the school year into four semesters any three of which the students may attend, and one of which a member of the faculty may take for a vacation. They further propose to close the schol year one month earlier than at present, thus making the summer vacation extend from May 15 to August 15.

Because L. H. Severance, who has given Wooster university more than a million dollars in the last few years, is opposed to fraternities the trustees of the institution voted to abolish all the fraternities. Sentiment is running high among the students and college activities are at a standstill. The decision affects twelve organizations.

TEAM SHOOTS HIGH SCORE THIS WEEK

Register 952 Points Against University of Nebraska in Last Meet

Iowa's crack marksmen yesterday finished snooting against the strong team representing the university or Nebraska, making the creditable score of 952, two points higher than last week. Nebraska's side of the score will not be in till early next week but it is confidently expected that the local's score is sufficiently large to add another victory.

The score of the five man team is as follows:

	Stand.	Prone	Total
A. T. Arneson	97	96	193
B. Reinsh	97	95	192
Leo Chapman	91	98	189
R. L. Jaeger	92	97	189
A. J. Oehler	92	97	189
Total			952

The other men shooting made the following scores:

G. W. Cain	93	96	189
J. W. Brooks	90	98	188
P. G. Graham	88	98	186
R. L. Borland	89	94	183

Although the gain over last week's score is slight, it is sufficient to show that the constant work of the team is not unavailing. The men are working hard and consistently and each week they are making a more creditable showing. Although the team has been defeated once their total score for the season is larger than that of any other team in the western division. With hard work the locals chance of again finishing first in the western division is good. Considerable improvement is needed, however before the strong eastern teams are met.

Desiring to secure a position for every senior in the school of engineering, the senior engineers at the university of Missouri are publishing a book that will contain the pictures of each senior, give his school record and his outside experience. Copies of this book will be mailed by the bureau of recommendation to all who usually employ young graduates.

Claiming that the annual has been run in an impractical manner, student at Kansas university have submitted to the Men's Student Councila a new plan for the management of the annual. The plan would give college credit to the manager and editor of the book, require the senior class to donate the Jawhawker to the university, the consequent raising of the student's assessment when he is a senior, reduce the price of the book.

At Ohio State university no girl can be pledged to a sorority who has a condition or failure mark against her.

There is a movement among Missouri students to prevent the wearing of large hats. Recently the students of a certain class asked their professor not to allow the women to wear large hats during class time. The professor was sympathetic and announced that large hats would only be tolerated in the back row, giving as a reason that he could not take the roll satisfactory.

Kansas university is to have a new fraternity. The organization will be modeled after the modern fraternity, but composed of married students only.

JOHNSON COUNTY FAIR TOMORROW

Much Talked of Affair Takes Place at Armory Tomorrow Evening

After much work and worry on the part of those who have the matter in hand, the Johnson County Fair is fast rounding into shape, and by tomorrow night the university armory will be completely changed. All those organizations who will put on stunts are now busy arranging the material and the managers hope to start every thing right, and be on time.

The evening will open with supper at 5:30 served in cafataria style and should draw a large crowd from those who wish to find refuge from their boarding houses. The fair proper will start at 7:00 o'clock and is predicted to surpass all previous years. The managers refuse to disclose any facts regarding the program but assert that it will be an eye-opener and will go best as a surprise.

The price of admission will be 10 cents at the door and small fees will be collected at various booths. The entertainment is in the hands of the Y. W. C. A. and the girls have been putting forth every effort to make it a success.

ability. He has a close competitor for the mythical honor in Sauer of Simpson but the difference in the two teams and the competition that each have had during the season will give the preference to the wearer of the Scarlet and Black. Pfund of Ames is a good center but not in a class with Loper and Sauer.

At guard, Eagan of Grinnell and Berry of Iowa are in a class by themselves. Both would work to a good advantage as team mates and such a combination would be invincible Eagan is given the honor of captain of the select five which comes to him as a reward for his wonderful work during the past season. He had unusual capabilities as a leader and this position cannot be denied him. Pifer of Simpson and Parsons of Iowa are chosen for the second team. Sherman of Grinnell was one of the star guards of the state until he was injured in the Iowa game. Other guards worthy of mention are Rodgers of Ames, Klaus of Cornell and Dick of Iowa.

OTHER COLLEGES

Governor Ralston of Indiana signed a bill which makes optional the establishment of schools of industrial and agricultural education in any town or township within the state. Furthermore the state will aid the schools by levying a special tax on all taxables in the state.

According to director of athletics Charles S. Miller of the university of Pittsburg, that university is going to solve the "summer baseball" problem to its own satisfaction. A rule is to be adopted which will permit any of its athletes taking part in any kind of athletics between June 15 and September 15, provided they give up all other forms of athletics after September 15, execpt that in which they will compete for the university.

South Dakota State college has just devoted one issue of the college paper to the alumni.

A bill is now before the Kansas legislature to abolish the boards of regents of three state educational institutions. In their stead one board is proposed. This board, appointed by the governor, is to be composed of three members. This board is proposed largely as a money saving proposition. It is strongly opposed by both faculty and students, who claim that wherever tried it has failed utterly. Iowa is pointed to as an example of this fact.

The women's athletic association of the university of Missouri has decided to give the varsity basketball squad and the faculty, complimentary tickets to the girl's games. The girls on the teams are allowed three invitations to send to men, and each member of the association is allowed to invite one man.

Don't Envy a Good Dresser

but be one of them. A man should pay particular attention to his dress in every detail. If he does, the attention he receives from others will be just as noticeable. Never let your trousers bag at the knees or let your suit become spotted and out of shape. Prolong the wear of your clothes by having them put in first class condition here.

Also all kinds of alternations and mending at reasonable prices. Phone 292 and we will call
