I DESIRE to again call your attention to our ele-grant line of Spring and Summer Suitings and Overcoats which are now ready for your inspection.
I would be pleased to prove to you that I thoroughly understand our business, being well informed where to buy, what to buy and how to buy materials. And I can fit your shape to perfection. Suits from our shop bear these three tests—elegant appearance, lasting wearing qualities and a reasonable price.
Can we better that and leave your order for a spring suit or overcoat.

Eldon May Continues to Entertain and Mystify Her Audience

With the ball opening by Yeats and Danielle the German Couple, in a clever singing and talking act the above program was presented with success to the fair sized audience at Stagia's theatre last evening.

Helen Ulman, who styles herself the Whistling Prima Donna, put on a very pleasing act and received much applause. Favorable comment was heard on her selections of classical music.

The Roselli Singing Trio is the headline for the week, capable of solving several difficult selections. Their work in giving the "Sonate from Lucia" was especially good, both in selection and in harmony.

Emil May, The Mystery Girl comes times to project and enlighten her audience. Her work has been ent-tertaining and has caused much talk and comment.

The facility at Oregon university is considering a radical revision of the college calendar. They propose to divide the school year into four semesters any time during which the students may attend, and one of which the member of the faculty may take for a vacation. They further propose to close the school term one month earlier than at present, thus shortening the summer vacation from May 15 to August 15.

Because L. H. Sovrares, who has given Wooster university more than a million dollars in the last 20 years, is opposed to fraternity, the trustees of the institution voted to abolish all the fraternities. Sovrares is running high amid the students and college activities are at a standstill. The decision affects fourteen organizations.

There is a movement among Missouri students to prevent the wear of large hats. Recently the members of a certain class asked their professor not to allow the women to wear large hats during class time. The professor was sympathetic and answered that large hats would only be tolerated in the back row, owing as a reason that he could not take the roll satisfactorily.

Kansas university is to have a new freshman fraternity. The organization will be modeled after the modern fraternity, but composed of married students only.

JOHNSON COUNTY FAIR TOMORROW

March Talked of Affairs Takes Place at Amesbury Tomorrow Evening

After much work and worry on the part of those who have the matter in hand, the Johnson County Fair is fast rounding into shape, and to tomorrow night the university faculty are to be completely changed. All those organizations who will put on events are now busy arranging the materials and the managers hope to start every thing right, and be on time.

The evening will open with supper at 5:30 served in elegant style and should draw a large crowd from those who wish to find refuge from steady bounding horses. The fair will start at 7:30 which will be preceded to entertain all present for years. The managers refuse to disclose any facts regarding the program but assert that it will be an eye-opener and will go best as a surprise.

The price of admission will be 10 cents at the door and small fees will be collected at various booths. The entertainment is in the hands of the Y. W. C. A. and the girls have been putting forth every effort to make it a success.

COMMERCE TAKES NOTICE

A business meeting of the Commerce political club will be held at Clines hall tonight at 7:30. Important business of national scope will be attended to and every member must be present.

A bill is now before the Kansas legislature to abolish the boards of regents of three state educational institutions. In their stead, one board is proposed. This board, appointed by the governor, is to be composed of three members. This board is proposed largely as a money saving proposition. It is strongly opposed by both faculty and students, who claim that wherever tried it has failed utterly. It has been pointed to as an example of the fact.

The women's athletic association of the university of Missouri has decided to give the vanity basketball squad and the faculty, complimentary tickets to the girl's games. The girls on the teams are allowed three invitations to send to them, and each member of the association is allowed to invite one man.

Andrew Curtiss has given the university of Iowa, nearly $100, $90.
