GO TO CHURCH

Why not turn over a new leaf this morning and go to church? It is not a policy of the Daily Iowan to dictate to the students any creed or suggest to them any sect. Yet every man and woman in the university should attend some form of religious worship. There are many churches represented in Iowa City and the students form a large part of the membership and congregation. If the student does not find his special sect represented here there is some church where he may find a home. The beginning of the year is a good time to begin church going. Every new student should select a church where he may go. It is not necessary that he attend every service of the church or that he enter into all its activities unless he so desires. Even though a student finds no church which he cares to identify himself with the horizons of a good address either Sunday morning, or evening or both will better fit him to carry on his work. If he does nothing else it will broaden his mind and put him in touch with a movement which is so old as humanity, for all people of history have worshiped in some manner. It will furnish a change of thought from the monotony of class work and will give a chance for thought along a line that is interesting.

Merchant Tailor Clothes Look Better—
They Always Have—They Always Will

That desire something called STYLE cannot be made in a factory.

Good tailoring—the draping and cutting and modeling of cloth—is an ART, nothing less.

Every good merchant tailor believes this with his soul. I KNOW it from my own years of experience and patience and toil as a craftsman.

I know that merely to FIT is but a small part of a good tailor's art.

The RIGHT kind of clothes—the clothes YOU want—appeal as much through FITNESS as through FIT.

Through an air of distinction and elegance, a good tailor can express the best there is in you. I can make your clothes bespeak CLASS. I can preserve INDIVIDUALITY. I can give PERSONALITY a chance.

You want such clothes and they can be had in only one way. They must be cut and made EXPRESSLY FOR YOU, from failtuss fabrics, by that artist of merchants—a merchant tailor,

These are tailoring FACTS. In neglecting them you wrong Opportunity.

SPORTING Dope

There is no dearth of back field candidates. Parents is being groomed at quarter to full the place left behind by Pat Miley. His work at this position is creating such favorable comment. Gross and Swisher have great records back of them and are performing free to form during the week and must be given a hearing when selections are made. President is casually browsing Clingman's old jacket in the forward line and Max Wilson of Otsego is making a capable successor to former Captain Hudson. Greenstein is already playing in his 1912 form at left end. Krich should do even better than last year because of his physical condition. There is showing signs of developing into one of the greatest full backs of western football. Dick is also running true to form and many an opposition end will be circled this year by this slippery back. Penningroth will be hard to keep off the team by year's end with Donnally, the former center. Christian star, will prove capable or outstanding for the black field line. Barnes in date has had no competition as a result of the week's practice presided over about seventy-five men, the coaches. As a result of the week's practice and last evening's performances more promising material has been brought to the notice of the coaches. Coe, from the University of Colorado and a former star at the western school has appeared and showcased his candidacy for center. Houghton, Carberry, and Showers will, no doubt, make a great battle for the goal posts. "Giant" Barnes is displayed great skill as a lineman and will probably be used by Coach Hawley in many of the games. Gillett, a former Bonneville Lake athlete, is out for the center end position and will compete with Brown, Carberry, and Filson for the place. Formerly of Des Moines, comes to Iowa with a good reputation as a lineman and may break into the game during the season. Schulte, if he can overcome parental objection to the game will give sound line competition.
