Prospects good for finances

Much interest being taken in athletics this year by students.

The year's tickets are going fast. That was the verdict of athletic manager Keatings late yesterday evening. At the present time there are more of the tickets sold than at the same time last year. Whether the tickets are going faster or whether there will be a big increase over last year is the question put up by Mr. Keatings.

There was a bigger crowd at the puskall contest Thursday than before. Taking the weather into consideration some say that there will be more snow than the games this season.

Arrangements are being finalized for the construction of 500 additional seats on the east side of the field. This will increase the stands greatly. Seats will be all in the reserved seats at the Ames game. The best "bull" bleachers will be placed on the track and will be used for general admission tickets for the games with the Aggies.

The athletic board has decided to reinstate reporting out of town games by the long distance telephone. Direct connection will be made for the game with Chicago, Northwest and Nebraska. The Haywayer sent the sale of the wool in the auditorium and the game will be shown on the black board the same as last season.

All holders of the "N" and "G" tickets will be admitted. All other persons will have to pay a small fee to watch these events.

Pendean players will meet Monday to arrange tables.

Dinner to meet all persons interested in high grade dramatic work.

At that time

There will be a meeting of the Pendean players dramatic club, Monday afternoon, at 4:30. The assembly hall will be arranged for the try out tests. All students of the university interested in high grade dramatic work, are asked to be present at the meeting to receive interest and without concerning the try out.

Last year the Pendean players presented "The Gentleman Frow, Mississippi." This year the organization has decided to give two plays a year. The student body in high grade.

Three extension bureaus planned.

New work to be taken up by University in Near Future to Help State

Three new bureaus are being planned in the extension division of the university, the bureau of municipal information, the bureau of public administration, and the bureau of social welfare. The detailed plans of the new bureaus have not been announced but will be outlined definitely in the near future.

The bureau of municipal information, has attracted a wide interest out of the attention given to municipal affairs at the present time. At the meeting of the league of Iowa the last week in March a resolution was adopted recommending the state university for co-educational purposes, and university extension programs.

G. E. Klinehagen, formerly of Des Moines, is in charge of the bureau of municipal information, and he is at present making an investigation of the municipalities of the state for the extension service.

This bureau will develop the services of such a character which are employed with such good results in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

The new bureaus of the extension division are the bureau of public administration, which will deal especially with the problems connected with county duties and the preparation of state and municipal officers in Iowa, and the bureau of social welfare. The latter bureau will be in charge of Dr. Ralph E. Hall, whose home was originally in Idaho, Iowa, and who is a graduate of the University of Idaho.

The work of these bureaus will be in scope, covering the entire field of political, social, and economic welfare of the people of Iowa.

Each bureau devotes to the public. These bureaus will be prepared to give assistance to all bureaus in all the ways that the subjects of research and extension service will permit.

Thesis in agriculture is a real test of a student's ability to apply the principles of farming and to carry out the plans of a practical nature.

The subject of the thesis on this year's variety is "The history and development of the Iowa State University." The last practice before the end of the season is to pay off all of the students on the band before closing game. The tentative varsity trimmed for an hour with the men thus trimmed for the season's work. The student body on this year's score on the football team.

The senior department students hold their class election Tuesday, and the following officers were named: President, C. A. Roe, Columbus, Minn.; Secretary, J. A. B. Swift, Rapid City, S.D.; Treasurer, R. C. Stull, Orange City. Many of the students at the university have been permitted to engage in the scholarship and other members of the college.

Registration for Dell Surveys All Previous Records—List of Officers

Will Be Published in Near Future—Dell Begins October 7

Word was received yesterday from the war department at Washington showing the appointment of Lieutenant Robert T. Prinzen of the Twenty-first Infantry stationed at Vancouver Barracks, in commandant of the university cavalry regiment. This new commandant, however, will not come to the university for two or three weeks at his duties in the service, will keep his head until that time. Lieutenant Prinzen is a West Point man and comes highly recommended from the service. Since the removal of Lieutenant Lofland this summer, Sergeant-Major Rahm has been serving as commandant but he will continue to guard the arrival of the new head.

The official registration for military drill thus far surpasses all records set in the past. About three hundred men are now scheduled for drill, this being almost 160 more than at this time last year.

Constitution Question Up to Woman's Societies

Will Eiffer Approve or Reject Proposal to Make Women's Constituents

Within the next few days the woman's literary societies will make up their minds to reject the proposed constitution of the women's franchise league. This was submitted by the forensic council early this month, for ratification by the society.

In the event of its acceptance, a new councilor will be elected immediately to supervise the legislative law draft to start the constitution, and draw up plans.

The work of the organization has been going on for some time yet, and will be final until the decision of the women with regard to the constitution is known.
