DOMESTIC SCIENCE COURSE POPULAR
Eighty In Freshman Class—Many Liberal Arts Students Also Taking Work

The course in home economics has started up its work and is getting along splendidly. The experimental housekeeping room in the library and the new lecture room in the science building are being kept in shape physiologically and mentally free from contact with emotion.

The men came out of the course with the Pedagogues in good shape for the Outlook for the men, and the forenoon, from 9-11 a.m., will be devoted to the scientific and philosophical sides of the study. The evening drill will be more scientific in character.

DISTANCE MEN ARE STRUGGLING. Last year the Iowans, under the guidance of their great mentor, had a team that was dominant throughout the season. This year, the Hawkeyes are looking for a new frontier in early season games. The team has been working hard to prepare for the upcoming season, and fans are eagerly awaiting the first game against Ohio next November.

Coach Hawley's men were not entirely satisfied with their performance in the recent Iowa game. The Hawkeyes outscored the opposing team, but their victory was not entirely convincing. The coach expressed his determination to make the season even larger.

The uniformity of the team's preparations for the season is impressive. Every member of the team is working hard to ensure that the team will be ready to face any challenge. The coach has been particularly pleased with the absence of the fumbling habit that seemed to be a frequent occurrence in the Hawkeyes' games last year.

The team is looking forward to the challenge of breaking into the long distance running events. Tucker, Muhlenberg, Leabhart, Block, McGregor, Martin, Hering, Krekow, Brooks, Lewis, Kobler, Shaw, Hartman, Brown's Counseling, and All-star Cast are expected to make a mark in this event.

REAL CONFERENCE WORK BEGAN LAST SATURDAY

OPPONENTS IN BIG NINE WERE PLAYED OFF AND PROMPT LOOK PROMISING

No Team Suffered Defeat Although Some Still Contend Were Waged Wisconsin and Minnesota in Lincoln.

The lid was officially pried off the Western gridiron season last week, when all the Big Nine teams played their initial games, none of whom were of more or less sense of less importance. Viewed at this angle, however, and at this early date the rare for conference title should prove a challeg.

All the teams represented in the conference appear to have added strength and it appears now that some of the battle upon western gridiron this fall will present some rare fruits of strength, endurance and football skill.

Wisconsin, which swept the western conference last year and withstood the test, is again the Big Nine. But the big Nine will not surrender its laurels of last year easily.

Minnesota, as usual, if it does to be a factor in this is this year.

The Minnesotans have no trouble in answering Ames who, as Iowa roadsters know, is never an easy foe. Much improvement was shown by the team when compared with the showing put up against South Dakota a week previous.

Northwestern also put in the rate by its 10-0 defeat of Lake Forest, one of the strongest minor college opponents this week. The stock of the Evanstonians before the game was below par and much fear was expressed by the Purple visitors that defeat might fall to their lot. The victory gained; however, shows that Coach Grant has most promising material and good coaching will bring it as a highest achievement.

Illinois had the direction of Bob Kappie, who has completely revolutionized football methods and tactics at the University of Chicago. The stock of the Evanstonians before the game was below par and much fear was expressed by the Purple visitors that defeat might fall to their lot. The victory gained however, shows that Coach Grant has most promising material and good coaching will bring it as a highest achievement.
