New Stunt Feature for Jollification

Entertainment at Englert's on "Football Night" for the Iowa University Affair

“The Yarol Vai de Vire”

This is the name of the entertainment which is being arranged by the University of Iowa association for Saturday evening, November 15. It will be given in the Englert theater for the visitors at the second annual Alumni homecoming.

The entertainment will take the form of a series of acts by university talent. The program will not be complete until troops have arrived, but it will probably consist of a novelty electrical act, a comedy quartet, a dancing tandem, a sketch, a tango, a comedy quartet, a dancing team, a stallio, a sketch, a tango trio, a chalk talk, and aresco act. Making pictures of the university will be the feature. The resa taken last year will be used.

This type of the entertainment will be used by the University of Iowa association to meet other homecomings

Students who desire to try out for "The Yarol Vai de Vire" may audition for the pageant. Those who are admitted will have the opportunity to participate in the entertainment.

The entertainment at the Englert will be open to all alumni of the university and the alumni club will be the main feature of "Football Night" after the Ames game.

UNIVERSITY SUNDAY

Several of the churches of the town are to hold special services on Sunday, and special services are being held for the benefit of the university. These services were held because of the interest of the church leaders in the war work.

The young men of the church have joined the operation to support the war effort. In all, over 500 young men have enrolled in the university.

Mr. Matt has dominated graduate writings of intellectual men in almost every capital and university city in the world," said Secretary M. H. Williams of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday.

This includes Oxford, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Athens, Buenos Ayres, Melbourne, Johannesburg, Tokyo, Calcutta, Seoul, and elsewhere. He has influenced more young men than any other man living. We shall have many strong leaders to assist Mr. Matt in the three days' Campaign of Friendship.

CADETS IMPROVE UNDER PHINNEY

University Regiment Taking Form Rapi.dly—Many Drawbacks to Contend With

"I am very well pleased with the work of the men so far," said Lieutenant Phinney, the new commandant of cadets in an interview last evening. "With good weather for two or three weeks more, we should be able to make some substantial progress before indoor drills become necessary."

The drill periods this week have been given over entirely to company drill. Special attention has been given to the squad movements, and the candidates for positions as ancients and corporals have been allowed an opportunity to show what they can do in the line. While the single movements are not as perfect as they were many years ago. They are imitated by nearly every shoe manufacturer in the country. Have you seen Selz Waukenaheast? Better do this today—even though you may not want to buy.
