Hawley's Hardy Hawkeyes
Humble Haughty Hoosiers

Iowans Smite Sheldon's Men Hip and Thigh, Yesterday In Glorious Victory By 60-0 Score

Exhibiting her intrepid offense, resilience in her execution, and a defense which is well nigh impregnable, she virtually swept Indiana before yesterday afternoon, on Iowa field, a contest which evidently was all too much for the Hoosiers. The defense over was about completely unassailed by the ferocity and intrusiveness of Iowa's attack, and was completely in evidence to achieve a quick and decisive defense to cope with the penetration of brilliant plays unerringly executed by the Hawkeyes. The score is 60 to 0 in favor of Iowa and is a good indication of the comparative strength and skill of the two teams.

The Hawkeyes played together as well oiled machines. Everywhere was efficiency and capable coaching dehydrated. Every member of the Iowa team that were to do its part did its best and the best part of this from Iowa standpoint is that each team played faster for time in carrying out its particular game.

Sensational playing by the Iowa backfield in the contest brought the score to their favor in a frenzy of excitement many times. But for any long day have Iowa local teams such as a superb exhibition of field running and line smash, as they witnessed yesterday. President and Dick, by long, startling, hand runs and Meighans by terrific efforts, it seems not impossible to mention their superior "Sonic" and "Hick" backfield as before the other defense stood helpless. Par was concerned the scores of his old turn to form to his speedy run he long runs executed in his old fashioned run around and demonstrated to all concerned that this speed was in no way abolished.

President Bowman Discusses Improvements in Address Before Alumni

It is students and faculty imbued with an inspiring sacredness, which is the basis of good citizenship, that the State University of Iowa has made wonderful progress in the year just past. President John Q. Bowman declared in a last Friday night at the U.S. B. banquet.

President Bowman outlined briefly by the work of the new extension director, giving special credit to Prof. B. F. Shambaugh. He spoke of the new department of home economics under Miss Wardell, which opened the fall with ninety-seven freshmen girls. "In four years," the great man said, "there will be 125 girls in this department. The work here in dietetics will be related to work in the university hospital. No university in the country has a better opportunity to develop this field."

A closer personal contact for the welfare of boys is being encouraged by the work of C. G. Rothenberg, class of 1911, and Prof. Robert Whittall and others.

President Bowman said. He added that the value of this work cannot be measured by any efficacy group. Other topics mentioned were the broadening of the college of education under Dean W. A. Joseph, the opening of the girls' dormitory, Critical hall, and plans for new buildings.

JOYOUS THROBS OF STUDENTS CELEBRATE

NO DAMAGE WHATSOEVER REFLICT: BUT FALSE SCARE BRINGS OUT FIRE DEPARTMENT

Large blaze at Foot of Hill satisfies crowds—Local Theater Performed to Entertain Several Hundred Students

After parading the down town streets of the city last evening a crowd of several hundred students gathered in a special good support of the Indiana game which might have resulted worse than it did. The crowd was headed by half of the university band and a number of other students, chiefly engineers, all who were attired in night shirts. It was only after a fire had been started on the corner of Capital and Washington that things assumed a serious aspect. Boxes and barrels had been procured from the university health and a crowd assembled. It was the intentions of the crowd to start the fire at the foot of the hill, but some student dropped a hot oil lamp on the engineering corner and lighted it. More boxes and barrels were weighed thoughtlessly which gave the fire large proportions. The fire had been started near a trolley pole and this was soon added.

Realizing that danger would result of the Sigma Alpha Epilson fraternal house Wednesday evening. The frightened and scared housemen seem to be a mark for local amateurs who are the guilty ones, it is believed, and the local Greeks have reason to consider that somebody has put their silver in a safe place

over night.
Had it not been for the fact that one of the men had been up late praying for an examination yesterday,
the thief might have gotten away with much valuable equipment, and deliberated robbing. This subtle criminal had put out his light and entered about 1:30 a.m. and it was only a moment after when he became awake of the榴der below. Calling two of the men close by, they descended to the lower part of the house and frightened the man away.

HOLLYWEED WIN FROM HOCKEY

Brownies, at right guard, kept up his good work shown in previous games this year and opened up big holes for his backs, in the opposing line. Wilson at left guard easily eluded his opponent and was instrumental in breaking up many plays by his ability to use the distance in which the play was located. Houghton, at center, had the edge on the gigantic Vonn. His passing was accurate and aided much in the general offensive lines work of the eleven.

Interference given the back field yesterday brought much favorable comment from the spectators. Good protection to the runner had always been a feature of the Hawkeye team play and yesterday it developed to a state of perfection.

Many substitutions got a chance yes- terday to show what they could do under fire and all created a favorable impression. Their excellent showing showing indicates that Iowa will have no dearth of material with which to develop material next year.

New Pamphlet Issued

Professor Welles Valid for His Work in Greece and as Teacher

Professor C. H. Welles has issued a pamphlet describing his services of lecturers, art, and archaeology. Mr. Welles is well known as an authority on these subjects, and his popularity with a large lecture audience has many times been demonstrated.

Mr. Welles holds a Ph. B. from Yale, is head of the department of Greek and Archaeology in the university, university editor, and recently re-elected president of the Iowa Ad club. His trips to Greece and Italy are the envy of many men. His work has been noted in lectures of similar nature. Archaeology is popularly thought to be as dry as the objects surveyed by excavations on the Hellenic period, but the theme is one of infinite identity. Most of the instruction given under such a subject is of his lectures thoroughly illustrated were taken by those who are in the rooms in Greece. While there he became engaged in independent examinations and investigations, the results of which have been published in the American Journal of Archaeology. It is needless to describe his lectures on Greek subjects that he mingle his descriptions of Greece and Athens of to-day, with those of classic times; thus making his talks so vivid and real that a lively interest is provoked in class objects. While long an authority on archaeology and archeology, he never treats his subject with an elevated scholastic standpoint which often loses the audience interest.

Professor Kellogg has made the showing better form will at all times represent the university in the match following the work, the present of the team in interesting and the recruit is familiar with an equal chance with the experienced man. Several new men already making waves that compare very favorably with the stars of the renowned sneaker.

An admission of ten new gallery practice rifle has been received by the war department and these will be issued to the old members of the team at once. Those men who represent the university in the matches last year should call at the commandant's office and select one of three rifles as soon as possible. The guns received are the regulation $1,000 gallery practice rifle which is used by the regular army in all official range work. With the exception of the barret length of the barrel and new sight, graduated for model 1893 ammunition, all the component parts of this rifle are the same as those of the U. S. S. rifle, model of 1893, caliber .44. The barrel has the same external dimensions as the barrel of the U. S. S. rifle, model of 1893, caliber .44. The barrel is reamed to .219 inch diameter and the grooves are .032 inch deep, thus approximating to the .22 caliber ammunition. This bar-

The demand for rooms at the time of the homecoming next Thursday, Friday and Saturday is unprecedented.

Already the hotels have experienced great difficulty in taking care of the advance reservations and it is probable that before Monday night most of the hotel rooms, if not all of them will be gone.

Howard Y. Williams, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has started to compile the largest list of rooms in private residences over furnished for an influx in Iowa City. "I wish all those who desire to rent rooms during the homecoming would call us, our telephone, and leave the address and price that will be charged to rooms," said Mr Williams yesterday.

"The townpeople are taking great interest in this homecoming and we have already received many volun- teer telegrams, communications, and in the case the party telegraphing has shown the most kindly spirit of cooperation."
