TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION FOR INTER-CAMP RIVALRY ON SATURDAY

Varsity Squad Lost Last Night—Freshmen to Follow Today—Day Field Needed for Iowa’s Last Back Field.

Pleased to the minute and at its zenith to please a host of fans, the 1913 varsity football team, accompanied by its unter les, coaches and trainers, lost last night 12-11 to the team of state and country of the Democratic Bryan. The cause of the exultation of the husky fandom was that Iowa is scheduled to play Nebraska at Lincoln tommorow. In addition to the varsity squad, were the members of the freshman team who have been given the privilege of being let into the secret ofOrange and Blue. The state football team is planning to bring a state of Orange and Blue. These tales of woe have had their proper place in the annals of the team’s history, and will be a memory for many years to come.

FURS ARE ON SALE FOR HOLIDAY REUNIONS

Homesoming and University Moving Pictures Will Be Used During Vacations

He will have some lantern slide views of the university which will be arranged for the coming reunion of the students of the university of Iowa science. These sets will each contain thirty-photographs about the campus. Several colored slides will be included in each set, and a large number of homecoming views will be used.

Last year the lantern slides were first used for holiday reunions and the demand was so much greater than expected that it was impossible to get the sets of views. This year, however, great care has been taken in making the lantern and the selection of views. It is believed that these sets will supply the demand, but the number of membership tickets that have been sold and a report of the finances.

Through the courtesy of T. E. Polk, the state of Missouri, the Union League is planning to bring a set of lantern slides and the university football team will be circu-lated in the largest round of the season and will be used at the state. It is expected that this will aid materially in showing views of the university in all parts of the state.

Last year thirty-nine meetings were held and views of the university were shown over to 3,000 people. It is expected that the number will be far surpassed this winter. Rooms set will also be sent outside of the state.

Already the R. O. T. C. at Seattle and the University at Washington are soliciting sets of views such as were used last year by the officers.

HAWKEYES PRIMED FOR CORNHUSKERS

A victory over Iowa would assure his eleven a high rank in western football. Cornhusker moves have lapped the work of the Iowa eleven in all of its big games and have carefully noted all points of strength and weakness. Nebraska forwards have been working for the last few weeks toward the perfecting of a defense to cope with the famous Iowa spread.

According to the reports, these efforts have proven fruitless, as theKodak scareh and freshness have used the year with telling effect upon the Hawkeye system. This is not surprising, as a perfect defense for this bulk-filling formation has not yet to be derived.

Iowa will be represented at this contest with a good crowd of roots and prepared to stick by the team in lieu of defeat. In spite of changeover, may fail to see the lot of the Hawkeyes.

Telegraphic reports of the clash will be sent to the natural science auditorium as soon as the practice this season in all previous out of town games.

WASSAM WILL SPEAK TO WINNIS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Will Lecture on Physiology and the Boy Problem Friday and Saturday at Madison

NO ANXIETY FELT

Much comment has appeared in newspaper lately over the football party. No word has been heard from the party for several weeks and reports have been circulated that the party was lost. A good explanation of the matter yesterday by Professor Nutting. He says that the party has passed the line of communication and that winter has set in where the party are located.

as fast as possible which means that within a few days things will be running on a sound business footing.

Just as soon as the new officers are installed every effort will be made for new members. This ex- pectation of new members has been gone on about ever since the Union dinner, but the organization has been so active that it might be well to mention that the organization of the Stamper's Union which is anticipated to bring in a large number of new members.

The Iowa Union, having been at- tended by the students of the un- iversity, without the deteriorating influence of politics, or factional contests, is the only purely democratic institution in the university. Be- cause this institution is absolutely democratic in its character and organization as well as in its purpose, it is anticipated that it will prove a powerful factor in the promoting of student activities. There are many things that will be done over- before the year is over. Beginning next Monday the Iowa Union will be- gin to carry out the purpose for which it has been organized.

Innovation to Take the Place of Regular Class work in the College of Law

During the present school year the work of the law college is to be increased by the addition of a course of outside lectures which will be given from time to time by leading members of the Iowa bar. A dozen or more times during the year active practice will take the place of students on various problems which confront the lawyer in every- day life. It is hoped by this method to give them a better preparation for their work and to vary the set routine, by this addition, which promises to be both instructive and entertaining.

The lectures will take the place of regular classes on the day on which their use is given and will be delivered before the students in a body. If the innovation proves a success they will be continued as a regular part of the work in the school. At present Dean H. W. Dunn is busy securing the best talent possible for this work.

FIRST CALL SENT OUT FOR GOSPEL TEAM MEN

Several Teams to Go Out Christmas Time—Expect to Surpass Last Year

The Y. M. C. A. sends out its first call for Gospel team men. The as- sociation is planning on sending out five or six teams during the Chris- tmas vacation. Last year the associ- ation sent out over fifty men during the Christmas and Easter vacations, and we expect this year, if we desire to increase the number this year.

Teams of five or six men will visit four or five villages for a week at Christmas time. Meetings will be held in the evening, and in the day time, by gospele and other means, members of the teams will visit homes, as far as is practicable, with the young men of the community in which they work. This Gospel team work not only affords a great experience for the members on the team, but is a splendid thing for the work to which it goes. In the new interests aroused, the better ideas created, the same time friends formed, among the young men of these communities.

On Dec. 3rd, Fred Hanse, state secretary in charge of rural Y. M. C. A. work and Guy A.Abbott, state stu- dent's secretary, will be here to teach members of the teams selected. Those who are interested in the Gospel team work should speak at one of the meetings of the secretaries or the An- derson, or Frank Neumann.
