PROFESSOR DENNIS TO GIVE RECITAL in One of the foremost Interpreters of Dramatic Literature in the United States

Student of the university and newspaper will have an opportunity of hearing one of the foremost render in the United States this affternoon when Professor Ralph Dennis, head of the University English School of Oratory, gives his recital. He will give his program at four o'clock in the natural science auditorium.

Professor Dennis is considered by many the greatest interpreter of Dramatic literature in America. Many times has he been urged by his audience to book en-themselves with him, but he presents his duties as teaching to plan- work. He has been connected with the Northwestern school of oratory for the last twelve years.

He has made a special study of Dramatic literature and in response to a request he will give on of his Dramatic literature's pieces of work, "Gad'sby's Wadd ig. Another one of Professor Dennis's favorites, "The Man in the Shadow" will also be on the program. This college drama is a play whose apparent failures in Life were revived to success at a main reunion banquet.

Pulloving in the entire program is the same mood of the Other Fool.

The Man in the Shadow.

SUSAN MIDDLETON TO BE AWARDED AGA
This year—Commemorative Plays May Offer Trophy—Dedicated to Many Men Will Report for Squad.

In order to increase the interest in rifle shooting among the new men in the university and those who have never had to worry about being accused in this important activity, E. E. Lepper, Law '11, a former member of the rifle team, has offered a cup for the new boys making the best showing throughout the year. Mr. Lepp-ner was on the rifle team for four years, and was one of the crack guns of the school during his undergraduate career. The cup offered is of WorthingH after, mounted on an ivory base, and stands about ten inches high.

It will be presented to the new member of the rifle club, who makes the total number of Iowa Wesleyan riflemen, and will remain the property of the most matured marksmen. A new trophy will probably be offered every year.

The rules governing the competition for this prize are as follows: All new members of the rifle club, whether"freshman or upper classmen, are eligible to compete. Competitors must shoot at the same time as the regular team representing the university, and it is possible to shoot at the same time only when counted in figuring the total. If a new man is a member of the team, his match will be counted.

Otherwise, he will shoot on the days matches are scheduled, and turn in his tar-gtis in the same manner as those

First Annual Cadet Party will Occur at University Armory Sat-

Those former cadets that used their military uniforms to wear for sleeping for father's lawns and doing other odd jobs are now aware that there is an addition use for those cadet hops at the university. Many of the men, however, have carried around among those members of the regiment who have never learned the pride of the Iowa State College and have begun to wear their uniforms on our party party every day whenever their wears elsewhere. The stipulation has been made that the ladies must dress as Miss Columbia to be admitted.

Plans for this first annual cadet party over goes at the un-

Somewhere or other we cannot exactly understand the cut price ar- rangements which are being made to dramatize the occasion. Mr. McDonald, formerly of the Des Moines division of the Mitchell Advertising Agency will address the class. Mr. McDonald is a man of great experience in the advertising game and his talk will no doubt prove instructive. He will speak on the subject of advertising agencies, and will deal with their organization, their general recognition, etc.

Almost every one is using the word "cut" nowadays. The reason is that clothes are just beginning to be sold at their true value or else the prices, up until now, have been so high that it is not possible to buy anything but a "boost on the arm" that a girl will not put up while a man does not even try to blow on the jaw which causes death.

Leeper Offers Trophy for Best Marksman representing the university on the team, and the man whose score total is the largest figure will receive the trophy.

It is thought that this competition will bring out some exceptionally good shots, for there are many good marksmen who have hitherto shown no interest in this sport. Among the freshmen are several men who have represented various national guard companies in the state shoots in the past few years, and also a number of good high school cracksmen.

In addition to the L. H. Leeper trophy cup, the Emmauna medal, offered for the best shot in the rifle club, will be offered again this year. This medal has been won twice by A. M. Wurzburg, and now by L. H. Leeper. It is offered each year by Captains M. C. Mclntire, former commandant of cadets at the university, and the Leeper cup remains in the property of the man winning it.

Commandant Pinney also contemplated offering two or three other medals for rifle work, but the rules governing the competition for these prizes have not yet been formulated.

TRI DELTS HONOR ANNIVERSARY DAY

Many From the Cox Chapter Attend the Meeting-Banquet at Hotel Jefferson

Founders Day of Delta Delta Delta, the national sorority, was observed locally last evening with a banquet and toast program at the Hotel Jefferson in which the local Phi chapter and Delta Msa chapter from Cox Colleges, at Cedar Rapids, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the order. Covers were held for fifty-two, twenty-five of whom came to the city from Cedar Rapids arriving at 5:30 over the interurban.

Following the dinner a splendid toast program was given, presented by Mrs. Jacob Van der Zee, of Phi chapter, as toast mistress. Dun- ken’s orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Table decorations consisted of candles of the Tri Delta colors and arranged in the triangle, while two immense baskets of old gold chry- santhemums were placed at each side of the center. A special feature was the large electric clock representing the sincerity plan which was hung on the wall near.
