ANOTHER UNION DANCE SATURDAY

Miss Christine Miller gives recital tonight

The Municipal Light Day provides a huge success

Miss Christine Miller, hailed by many as America's leading contralto to singer, appears tonight in the natural science auditorium. Her concert is one of the T. Y. C. A. special series of which Dean W. G. Raymond is business manager.

University students and Iowa City people are promised a pleasant evening of music and a program made rich by the volumes, melody of warmth of Miss Miller's voice. Press reports of her appearances in large cities are unanimous in their praise. All Miss Minnie is one of the few artists the orchestral association intends to ever come again for the wedding festival of their city. She is declared by the Chicago Tribune musical critic to be "the first American contralto on the concert stage."

The games Friday and Saturday evening at 7 o'clock will conclude the varsity season of the athletic department of the university. Much interest has been taken in the past games making the season a most successful one.

Athletes in the girls department is so far the first time in the history of the university being run parallel to the men's sport. In their respective seasons hockey, foot ball and basket ball have been played and now Miss Wilson, the university physical director of the women's department is breaking a new athletic stunt by putting on the same schedule, melody of warmth of Miss Miller's voice.

The prime aim of athletics is not to beat your adversaries but to beat yourself. To beat your own record over and over again is the highest form of progress. To surpass is to forge ahead and to forge ahead is to succeed. Although success does not depend on athletics they are a great factor in success. That should be the aim and object of each and every student to get out and help himself to the beauty and glory that can be derived from athletics and at the same time to help forward to that goal a perfection that is sought too far through but never attained.

INSTRUCTOR GOES TO WASHINGTON

Dr. Bose Goes to Color with the British American--Will Meet Committee

Dr. Subhash Bose, lecturer on oriental politics and civilization in the department of political science of the university, left for Washington, D.C., where he will confer with the Indian ambassador in reference to the Hindoo exclusion law. This is the bill which was recently passed by the house excluding members of the Mogollon and Brown races from entering the country but more parcularly aimed at the Japanese. This bill was advocated by Secretary of Labor Wilson in response to the demands of the labor unions of the Pacific coast and will automatically exclude all Asiatic laborers from America.

Dr. Bose is sent to Washington to present the Indian point of view before the committee in charge of the bill. He represents the India Defense association of the Pacific coast and the Historian association of America of which he is president.

The Hindo immigration to this country is only a recent thing and at present there are only about four or five hundred mostly on the Pacific coast. They are employed as farm hands, on fruit ranches, in railroad construction and in lumber mills.

"The Hindo laborers have already found out that they are not welcome in this country," said Dr. Bose, "and consequently their number in America is steadily decreasing. My countrymen are sober, industrious, and clean. They never become a burden upon society. If America, however, wants to exclude them from this country, this can be accomplished by amicable arrangement with the Indian, government. An exclusion law is unnecessary. Its enactment would produce a tremendous upheaval in this already conflict ridden country."

Harvard students who attend the room, one of the leading social at-tures of the city, must not send flowers to young women guests. The students charge has made this ruling because of the present high cost of entertaining.

THE FALL OF PROPHETIX
Professor Jones was noted as a hygienic man. For all his life he was ordered on a prophylactic plan as he studied in a germ-proof room. The food he ate was sterilized by sanitary cooks. He never smoked a friendly hand to fear of some infection. To kiss he felt to be a crime to put on his hand. Also for hygienists, and he preferred his hands too.

Professor is but human, even Jones began to wish he had a set of courses of his own. The girl he loved was unfaithful to him, and she, they say, was unafraid to the greatest moral courage. A series of tryouts to select the leader for the next football season is being instituted at the university of Chicago. Sophomore tryout at the basketball games during the season.
