WISCONSIN DEAN BEFORE SIGMA XI

Dr. Charles R. Erickson to Deliver Annual Lecture To Local Chaplains

Dr. Charles R. Erickson, dean of the college of medicine in the University of Wisconsin, has been chosen to give the annual address to the University of Iowa chapter of Sigma Xi, the national honorary scientific fraternity. The address is scheduled for Feb. 18.

Dr. Erickson will speak on "The Service of Physical and Chemical Agents on Development." He will consider the value of germ cells are affected in the growth when put under the influence of radium, the Mountain rats, alcohol and other chemical agents, and will thus throw some light on the subject of the effect of growing things on the human body.

The speaker was born at Kalama- nation, Mich., in 1871 and received his professional education at the Tul-

HANKEY BOARD MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Hawkeye board, Thursday night at the Hawkeye office at 7:30 sharp. It was announced that this meeting would be held on Wednesday evening, but owing to several conflicts the meeting was postponed. Every mem- ber of the board is urged to be present. This call is to notify the editors and managers of the various college papers.

LEAGUE TO ENTERTAIN

A Valentine's day banquet is an- nounced for Saturday evening by the Hawkeye officers of the Methodist church. Arrangements have been made for a high class program of entertainment which will be followed by a dance. Tickets are on sale and are equal in price. The committee of the league has a number of guest speakers and organizing the event with the hope of its success.

BARGAIN DAYS

The first of the big bargain days by Iowa City merchants began yesterday. A large crowd attended the opening sales to be able to take the advantage of the store offered. Many others have been selling similar goods in or near Iowa City in order to encourage bugs. It is probable that another series of sales will be similar to present itself at this time.

Men and determining individual ability. Where all the talk has been around, will be the physical work with the singers. That big effort has been successful must be judged by press reports of the trip during the Christmas vacation, and the judgment of the students must be passed after the home concert. The club, as well as the director and singer are excited, and the student body will give them their hearty approval. Difficulty in obtaining possession of the natural sciences institution has caused the concert to be held rather late in the season. However the day has given the club an opportunity to make a few extra preparations which enable them to appear in better condition on the evening of the entertainment. For several days in advance, several other music students have been offered by Professor Lenox's office, for advanced seats at the home concert, and many inquiries have been made about the date. It is hoped that the student who wish to hear the club sing at the time will take advantage of this early notice and reserve their seats. When giving the managers and opportunity to make arrangements to accommodate the crowd which is sure to present itself at this time.

SCHROEDER WILL HAVE ASSISTANT

Dr. Ballard Former Champion to Assist the Physical Director

In Wrestling

New men on the mat are to be started in their career by Dr. F. E. Ballard, dentistry '13, who is practicing in Iowa City. Dr. Ballard has the favorite weight championship of the university for three years and is thoroughly competent to hold the position he has acquired. He was also president of the wrestling club last year.

All new men will be taken care of by Dr. Ballard at 5 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon. The older men and those who can not come out at these hours will be met by Director Schroeder at 9:30 Saturday morning. The schedule will continue in force until the annual tournament is held in the spring.

WRESTLING TOURNAMENT IS NOW BUT TWO WEEKS AWAY

Hawkeye Prospects Not the Best

Lacking in some of the Weights

Many times during the past few days, Director Schroeder has been pressed with the question of what the wrestling tryouts were to be helped. Owing to the lack of interest on the part of the wrestlers and the adverse condition of the gymnasium, it has been impossible to schedule a time for these try-outs, but arrangements are being made as rapidly as possible to hold the matches as soon as possible, within a few days.

The championship match will be decided within the next two weeks. This final match will determine the team which is to represent Iowa against Ames and Nebraska this year. Just what the Hawkeye expectations are, is hard to say, but some of the weights are sadly lacking. Several veterans will be able to hold their own against any opposition, and those are held out for a good showing.
