CAMPAIGN AMONG STUDENTS FOR FUNDS UNDER STILL-PROGRESSING

Best Closed Yesterday for First Time in Forty Years—Repeat Drive for Preservation of Res应用 of Union

Today the thermometer on the roof of the Iowa Union will indicate the neighborhood of 880 as the last slush directed toward the unusual climate of the last few days. Classes at present are on the increase and we expect to have a larger crowd at the next Tuesday evening. It is the duty and interest of all students interested in the preservation of this room to take it up in the interest of the students of the university.

The campaign forces have been distributed in every college, and every student should know the work they are doing and the good they are bringing to the student body. The work seems to be going on in a steady manner.

A FEW VACANCIES

Several rooms are being held Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the school for the use of the university choir. These rooms are a few of the many supplied to the students at the school. They are used by the student body at various times for study and recreation.

THE ART OF POSING
It will be but a short time before high school teams, their coaches and followers will be here for the third state tournament. You will be the host, let your team have a good fellowship out of the limit at this time. When these high school teams are in our gates we must see to it that every little thing is planned and taken care of. By the time of the tournament the town will be billed in our new quarters and this will give us an excellent opportunity of showing the high school students a real time. We believe that none will be disappointed in their visit here.

We realize that with 800 or more men and women in this institution there is always the question as to who should do the entertaining at this time. In answer to that question we say we would give every day of every individual here to do his part. Take upon yourself the responsibility of doing one little thing to make the future one of enjoying at home. If this is done it is easy to see that plenty of attention will be given to the high school men and their friends.

We know that several years ago, this university received some criticism because of the lumpy position some of the students have taken in this respect. Many high school men who came here on different occasions. But that time and attention is no more. Last year the university took the amount of favorable publicity through their treatment of those here for the high school basketball tournament and other similar events. But the state university of Iowa is not only the university or college that has been given, perhaps just criticism because of the benefits toward guests. Students everywhere are the same, and it takes years of experience and training before a student can be expected to understand the art of fellowship which will be taken up and followed by the succeeding generation of students. However, we feel that the students here have been first. At least it would appear so.

Colloquial Mind Reader
Frankie Siegel, the natural soothsayer with the greatest repertoire of things that man could boast of, will be at the Englert Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, according to the programme.
The Colloquial Mind Reader. "She is a hard-worker and loves the stage. All my life I have loved the stage and my enthusiasm for the drama remains. When I was a little tot, I lived next door to the Giraud Avenue Theatre in Philadelphia, and I was so happy and proud of my success that I ran away for Valoisa Beggars and Eddie Dixal and sat in their dressing room. Was I happy? Well, in my old days I didn't do that sort of thing. But now, please let me be of service to the greatest function in society. The folks at home had planned a great future for me, so then I refused to change my name when I joined the cast. I look to the stage. The theatre is now my home, and it's the one place in the world where the woman is absolutely the only one—not the employer of her professional brother—the true republic where sex, color and previous conditions of servitude are nothing.

THE HABIT OF POSING
The average person is posing in some way or other. The young Chinese electrician, named Oliver, who posed so successfully as a撂东西 in the Insane Asylum of the University of Engineering, have organized a new plan for exhibiting their work to the people at large. The Saturday evening celebration is one of the main events in which the engineers have led in this respect at all times. Today they have a book and they claim the "Argosy." But in all these colleges not much can be said of their spirit. Let it be known that the engineers are the "Green bunch" on the campus. We wish all the students had as much "pop." —Minneapolis Daily.

Say HORLICK'S

—not just "Malted Milk"

That is, of course, unless you don't care whether you get a first-rate drink or a fourth-rate one.

But most folks DO care. And at most cafes, drug-stores, restaurants and soda-fountains, they're careful to say HORLICK'S distinctly and emphatically.

Then they get the original and only genuine malted milk that is recognized as the standard. Make a habit of ordering HORLICK'S, the nutritious food-drink for all ages, when you want MALTED MILK.

TRI DELT AND KAPPA SIGMA HAVE FIRES
Peopletry Men and Women Prove Efficient Fire Fighters

Fire which might have proved disastrous, awakened the members of the Tri Delta and Kappa Sigma fraternities of Monday night. The house was filled with smoke and a large sized blaze was discovered in the basement. The local "fire hogs" was called and soon arrived on the scene. In the meantime alarm and consternation spreaded until one girl cowered with each breath and the other warmth of inaved between her sister's, conceived the idea of throwing water on the flames which by this time were making their way to the Tetons. The work on the part of the crew was very effective, for the fire was extinguished by the time the departure arrived. The fire originated from some hot ashes and cinders which had been piled in the basement.

This is the second fire at this house this year. The other occurred shortly before Christmas, but was found in time to be extinguished before any damage was done. February and the entire winter, the Tri Delta house was un guarded, and the se riority was forced to secure another house for the rest of the year. This winter, Mrs. Schubert, that they have had their share of fire, and are hoping that this, their third will prove to be the least.

Another fire occurred Monday ev ning at the Kappa Sigma house while the men were at dinner. A blanket thrown over a trunk in some manner caught adire, and the trunk and its contents were consider ably damaged. One of the men disting hidden himself by running to the fire with a paper drinking cup fill ed with water. It is said that he and the cool-headed Tri Delt will get to gether and compare notes on effective fire fighting.
