Teeters asks panel for advice on student conference.

Several of students to give convocation address

One of the interesting courses in the university is the course entitled "Creative Writing" given by Professor Merry. During this semester all the students registered are required to write a thirty minute or an hour long essay. This year Professor Merry will leave a traditional course of the department and select four students to visit to this course. The class contains many prominent in the foreword of the university and several of these are going out with their lectures each week this summer. Many of the lectures are illustrated by various readings and the whole show proves a most interesting one in the public speaking auditorium Monday and Wednesday at 2:30. It is hoped that many of the students of the college will attend these lectures.

Merry to preside at meeting.

Dean of the college, Mr. A. H. Merry, Tuesday night presided at the meeting of the alumni club, which was held at the Kibbey Hotel. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Merry, and many of the students of the college were in attendance.

"We are al ready six months behind," said Mr. Merry.

"This means that we are in a bad way," said Mr. Merry. "The men who have been middling well have failed to keep up their work, and we may be told that they will not be inclined to fail for football. Both of these men were beyond the shadow of a doubt at the very start of the season. With each day that passes the situation will grow worse, and at the close of the season we shall have a most serious situation on hand."

The board felt that more disapproval should be given to the men who have been middling well.

FEBRUARY BANQUET

Another event of the interest in Good Roads and the Good Roads movement, is the furnishing of the fact that the Shorewood Company, an organization of the leading map publishers of the country has organized a corps of trained Patrons who have been working with the road in the state. The board felt that more information about the work could be obtained by making the banquet somewhat exclusive.

Duell to Be Held This Afternoon —
Regiment Leaves Friday
Morrow at 8

Yesterday afternoon the remaining companies were furnished with their camping equipment and all are now in readiness for the spring camp. Besides the material furnished to the men certain other articles will be necessary and what they are may be found out by the notices posted around the campus. However definite orders will be given today at inspection.

At drill this afternoon, at the usual hour the regular uniform will be worn, together with the haversack and canteen that have been issued. An inspection will be gone through to see that everyone understands how to properly wear the paraphernalia. The regiment will be dismissed as soon as this inspection is over.

Friday morning at seven-thirty the assembly will be blown and the regiment must be prepared at that time in heavy marching order. The inspection will be taken at eight-thirty; at North Liberty the boys will get off the train and from there proceed in camp on foot. It is the Commandant's idea to go through war maneuvers which will take up the better part of the day, reaching camp at nightfall.

The weather man has predicted good weather and present indications are that the outing will be a big success.

FINAL DISCUSSION:

A certain strike whose engagements were announced in the last (we hope) bark of the Champ Clark canopy has given up smoking for HER aha.

"And she didn't even ask us to;" says one of her sisters.

Boodwell.

It's a perfect delight, an' all, to discuss these cases, if you come prepared as ordinary lawyers would be prepared on a case, but it's entirely unprecedented to come prepared like school boys."

"Ethel" has produced another work of art. Start your "watchful waiting" now. "Zip."

Horace — "Let me put my question this way.

Stucky — "That's all this morning.

Come back again some day.

Dunn — "Paul" Williamson's view of the legal and actual detaining theories."

Homier — "The class is esteemed."

"Rose O'neal." "Thos. Killingsworth."

Don't Get Spunky
You Won't Like This, But it Means You!

Men and women of Iowa, do you know what your attitude toward some of the bigger things of life really is?

Do you realize that your support of some of the really valuable things that are offered you here at the university is seriously lacking? That you are content with the trivial or the worthless?

You may think this is pretty strong, that you are being attacked.

CALM DOWN NOW

The old adage, "Actions speak louder than words," betrays the standard of your enjoyments and pleasures. Let this one fair question be asked of you and answered quite as fairly.

How do you support the worthy and famous artists who occasionally appear before the student body?

The answer is, you don't. We constitute a university city of 2700, yet at one concert, given by a great artist last winter there were fewer than 300 students in attendance.

This condition does not exist in other great universities of the country. Such a state in a small college is unknown.

IS IT TRUE THAT THE STUDENTS OF THIS UNIVERSITY CANNOT APPRECIATE THOSE THINGS THAT ARE REALLY WORTH WHILE?

BE FAIR AND SQUARE WITH YOURSELF—WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

IT'S TIME YOU DID A LITTLE CANDID THINKING.
