CAMP MACBRIDE ENDED YESTERDAY

COMPANY A UNDER THE COMMAND OF CAPTAIN MENAUGH WON DRILL YESTERDAY

All the Cadets Well Pleas'd With the Camp—Competitive Drill Different From Former Years—Hospital Tent Had Few Companies

Company A under the direction of Captain Menaugh won the annual competitive drill for companies held at Camp Macbride yesterday. The competitive was not the conventional one of company and squad formations as it has been in former years but depended upon the efficiency of the company as an organization in tactics and meeting practical problems of warfare.

Tired and dusty from a four days' encampment on the banks of the Iowa river, the cadets returned home late yesterday afternoon.

The four days of camp were full of much work and the men had many things to say about the life in the army. Drill was held in the morning and evenings. All military work was the problem of working with field problems with the exception of one regimental parade on Sunday afternoon by the cadet band.

The work of the Japanese men in the war with Russia demonstrated the advantages of movement by night and this resulted in Lieut. Phinney giving the men field work after supper each evening.

Outside of this the men were allowed to do much as they pleased. After evening drill many campfires were lit and the boys sat around these for a couple hours telling stories and singing songs. The fellows behaved themselves well during the entire encampment and while no rough treatment was handed out to anyone several fellows were the recipients of comical and strange requests and orders.

Sunday morning there was a young fellow drifted into camp who said that he was a farm hand and wanted to see the camp. He heard the band playing and said that he himself was a musician. He later admitted that he played a mouth harp. After a little talk on the part of some of the boys he was induced to join the army as a musician. Before enlisting he was vaccinated for typhoid fever and before night was considered immune from the disease.

The camp was situated on the rifle range of the state national guard twelve miles above Iowa City. It is on the banks of the Iowa river and about a mile from the interurban tracks. The place is an ideal one for a camp. The ground is surrounded by high hills on all sides. The field maneuvers of the troops were held in these hills and nearly all the movements were seen by men in the camp allowing those not in action to see how the work was done. The nights were cold and because of

KENT WILL ASSIST FOOTBALL COACHES

Athletic Board Closes Kent Varsity Baseball and Basket Ball Coach For Next Year

At a meeting of the board in control of athletics recently, M. A. Kent was reelected as coach for the basketball and base ball teams for next year, and was also elected as an assistant football coach for this fall. Another action of the board was fixing the price of Minnesota and Nebraska games this fall—$2 for the cement bleacher seats, and $1.50 for the wooden bleachers.

MANY ALUMNI TO TEACH IN HIGH SCHOOLS

University secures positions as Inspector For Large Number Of Graduates

Iowa City, Iowa, May 19—The university of Iowa's college of education through its teachers employment bureau has filled a large number of positions for the school year 1914-15.

The list of teachers who have been placed through the university follow, the name of the teachers being given first, the subject taught second, and the location of the school third; Lottie Leah Lester, history, Centerville; Ruth Gunderson, Mathematics, Orange City; Velma Marshall, science, Elliott; Harriet Wilson, science, Sigourney; Ruth Bonnett, mathematics and domestic science, Avoca; I. M. Stubbart, superintendent, St. Ansgar; Lydia Patratz, Latin and German, Wapello; Elsie Snavelly, English and public speaking, Shenandoah; Ben Smith, superintendent, Grant; Ruth Hamilton, principal, science, Castana; Evelene Babcock, English, New Hampton; Anna V. Meyers, Gedman, Centerville; Elizabeth Bennett, history and mathematics, Wapello; India Goodman, English and Latin, Mapleton; Geneva Hanna, English and music, Mechanicsville; Margaret Hughes, history civics, and economics, Williamsburg; Henry Husted, superintendent, Barnes City; Daniel Massar, superintendent, Castana; Julia Padmore, Latin, Des Moines; Parry Hannah, Latin and German, Avoca; Ruby Oblinger Latin, mathematics, and history, Lone Tree; Leon Smith, superintendent Onawa; Harry Wolcott, physics, Clinton; Lucile Best, Grant; Buda Keller, English, Orange City; Mildred Slavata, domestic science, Belmond; Ruth Ellison, history, Shenandoah, and Mabel Turner, English, Tabor.

This list does not include those elected who decided not to accept the election.

SIGMA DELTA CHI

There will be an important meeting of Sigma Delta Chi at the Iowan office Thursday evening. Seventy-three is the time set and meant.

MAY DAY FETE TO COME FRIDAY

FOUR HUNDRED NINETY GIRLS WILL PARTICIPATE IN MAY DAY FESTIVAL FRIDAY

Will be Fifth Anniversary of first May Day Festival—Name of May Queen Will Not Be Divulged Until Friday

Plans are completed for the big May Day Fete and Folk Festival, which will be held Friday, and with the final practice which will come the middle of the week everything will be in readiness for the greatest pageant which has ever been put on at the university. An interesting feature in connection with the festival this year is that it is the fifth anniversary, to the day, of the first exhibition which was staged on May 22, 1909.

This year for the first time since 1910 a May Queen will be crowned. In that year Miss Edna Harper, a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority was awarded that regal honor and since that time the custom has been discontinued. The department of physical training absolutely refuse to give out the name of the young lady who is to be adorned with the festive garlands symbolic of the title this year, and nor can the qualifications considered in choosing her or even to what class she belongs can be found out. Even the girls who are participating in the event are in as complete ignorance as is the student body as a whole. Many speculations have been made, but they are absolutely without foundation. This air of mystery concerning the identity of the young woman will pervade the atmosphere until Friday morning when it will be revealed through the columns of the Daily Iowan for the first time.

The program will start promptly at four o'clock Friday afternoon on the athletic field when a trumpeter will announce the approach of the May Queen attended by lady in waiting, pages, crown bearer and a troupe of sixty four Zouaves. After the ceremony of crowning the queen the freshmen of the department will give a May pole dance, which will be followed by a Zouave drill, and then an old time English minuet.

Immediately will come the dance of all nations, each country appropriately, in a characteristic dance of that land. The countries represent—

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE WILL CLOSE THIS WEEK

This week will see the last of the spring football practice. Captain Gunderson has issued a call for Tuesday and Thursday of this week and then will come the finale of gridiron work until fall. Assistant Coach Adams will have charge of the work which will consist of familiarizing the men with the plays which were left by Coach Hawley.

IRVING-ERO GIVES MILESTONES TONIGHT

Unique Play to Be Staged at Englert Theatre This Evening

For six weeks, the cast of the Irving Ero play has been hard at work on their play; "Milestones," both Manager Mather and Mrs. Heilman, the coach, were very enthusiastic over the prospects for success after the dress rehearsal last evening.

The play is unique, presenting as it does, three periods in history, 1860, 1885, and 1912. The story tells of the various complications into which two families of the nobility are fed over money matters, and through marriage, and shows how they are re-united in the next century by the third generation.

The societies feel fortunate in securing the right to use this play, as it left New York only recently, and is still playing in the large cities by the original company.

The settings are pretty in the extreme, and show the beautiful English home life. The costuming has been well taken care of, for the managers are determined to put on an artistic production. Following is the cast:

Sam Libby ..... Lester Drennen
John Rhead ..... Ralph Brown
Gertrude Rheade .... May Hobson
Rose Libby ..... Edna Westphal
Emily Monkhurst, Mildred De Freece
Mrs. Rheade .... Caroline Newcomb
Nancy Sibley ..... Marion Hasfield
Murial ..... Ruth Rath
Richard ..... Anders Mther
Ned Pym ..... Demry Bess
Preece ..... Mr. Rehorst
Monkhurst ..... Vernon Gould
Thompson ..... Robert Shaw
Webster ..... Mr. Stanton

MOTOR RACES TO BE HELD HERE SOON

More Than $1000 Offered In Prizes —Woman Driver Will Be a Feature of the Meet

Motor racing will be the order of events on Saturday, May 30, on the speedway at the city park. More than $1000 is offered in prizes. This amount is bringing here a great array of speed talent from all over the middle west. One of the features of the races will be a young lady driver from Kansas City who has gained considerable renown through her clever handling of a car. She will run against time during the program of races.

The speedway has been given considerable attention this spring. Workmen have banked the turns considerably, making the track much speedier than it ever has been. Local enthusiasts believe that the races here Memorial day will be among the fastest that have ever been held in the middle west.

Cars of national reputation for speed, will be seen in the races, including the Mercer and Bear-cat. These cars will be remembered in the races held here last September.

MACBRIDE PROBABLE PERMANENT PRESIDENT

EXPECTED THAT PRESIDENT MACBRIDE WILL BE GIVEN OFFICE PERMANENTLY

Members of Board Refuse to Confirm or Deny the Reports—Raise Salary Of the President to $7,500 a year —Board Will Meet This Week.

"President Macbride has demonstrated that he possesses administrative qualities in a very high degree. He has that quality which enables him to establish difficult situations, and to leave even those who are necessarily disappointed with results in a good frame of mind, because they have confidence that he did the best that could be done under the circumstances. He had the confidence of the board when he was elected acting president, and the ability and tact with which he has met all situations as only confirmed this confidence."

The above was the answer of D. D. Murphy, president of the state board of education, in reply to the article in yesterday morning's Register and Leader, which stated that members of the state board had agreed among themselves that Thomas H. Macbride would be the next president of the university. Mr. Murphy neither affirmed or denied the report, but said that the board had taken no action on the matter. He is spending the week in the city in the interests of the university.

Mr. Murphy further stated to an Iowan reporter that the matter of a successor to Prof. Schoettle had not yet been taken up, and that it had been left in the hands of Mr. Macbride. When asked regarding the report that Mr. Ansley had reconsidered his resignation as dean of the fine arts college, he said that the resignation had not been withdrawn as far as he knew.

The article from the Register and Leader of yesterday morning is as follows:

"Prof. Thomas H. Macbride, acting president of the state university at Iowa City, will be appointed president at a meeting of the board of education to be held next week in Iowa City, according to statements made by members of the board. The action has been particularly agreed upon.

"The work of Professor Macbride has been satisfactory to the board, so much so that he has been given a salary of $7,500 a year, while President Bowman received $6,000. Prominent men over the state have been deluging the members of the board with letters recommending that Professor Macbride be made permanent president. Although pleased with his work, the board until last week had refrained from giving any definite statements regarding the situation.

"Persons who have suggested that Pres. H. H. Seerley of the Iowa State Teachers' college at Cedar Falls, be

THE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Next Thursday, the spring music festival will be held under the auspices of the school of music. This festival is featured by the great Thomas orchestra, a musical organization that is sought eagerly by organization all over the United States, for entertainments of this kind. The fact that the Thomas orchestra will play two concerts here Thursday should be advertisement enough to pack any auditorium in the city. But what is the situation here? The sponsors, for the coming of this great musical organization, has been forced to launch an advertising campaign, unequalled in the history of the university. The management of this musical festival has felt it necessary to appeal, not to the artistic sense, but to the common sense of the student body in one great endeavor to win back that appreciation of the best music which seems to have been lost. Basing predictions concerning the attendance of the coming musical treat upon past support offered world-wide talent by the student body, we can safely say that the student body will be poorly represented in the audiences of afternoon and evening next Thursday.

We believe, however, that the students here appreciate talent as well as those of any other college or university in the country. It would be the conclusion then, that Iowa students have become careless, have failed to keep up their interest in the best music; and having neglected these things so long they have allowed the best things to pass by unheeded.

The fact that the university is backing this festival, that university men, who know and understand the best music are speaking of it in the highest terms, should arouse the student body to an interest, worthy of university men and women.

THE MAY DAY FETE

The annual May Day Fete will be given on Iowa field Friday afternoon. More than four hundred and fifty young women will take part in their stupendous exhibition of folk dances, representing eleven different nations.

For the first time since 1910, a May Queen will be crowned. Few persons can realize what an enormous amount of labor is necessary to plan and execute such an affair. For months the young women of the physical training department of the university have been faithfully working to make this event a success. That it will be a success from the standpoint of beauty of costumes, of perfectness of drill there is no doubt.

Although this event is yet to come, we are safe in saying that it will be one of the most gorgeous affairs that has been offered to the student body this year, if not in the history of the university. The department of physical training for women, deserves the support and highest praise of the student body as well as everyone who is interested in the university. Such things as these are the things which make for the upbuilding of the university; which make the work in the department of physical training worth while.

The crowning of the May Queen, is one of the interesting features of this occasion, but which has been omitted for several years. The restoring of this custom is noted with pleasure, for we believe that the May Day Fete is hardly complete without the crowning of the Queen.

Standings of the Different Baseball Leagues Are Given—Kellogg to Pitch Today

This afternoon the faculty and the Pharmaceuts will clash on Iowa field. In the last combat in which Mr. Kellogg twirled he was unable to get on base so the eager populace was disappointed in its desire to see him demonstrate his famous hook-bounce. Today however for the benefit of those disappointed last time the Pharmaceut pitcher has promised to present him with a base an balls in order to let him show the fans how it is done.

Tomorrow afternoon the Dents and Engineers, and the Laws and L. A.s tangle. Saturday, after the Northwestern game the Dents and the Pharmics will go through the formalities necessary before the Dents can chalk up another game in the "won" column.

Next week the games will be run off in the following order:

Faculty vs. Engineers; Faculty vs. L. A.; Engineers vs. Pharmics; Law vs. Faculty; Dents vs. Laws.

Just now the L. A.s, Dents and Laws look like the three strongest teams with the final fight resting in al probability between the Laws and the Dents. This game is the last on the schedule and should be of great interest to the inter-department fans.

HAWKEYES PREPARING FOR STATE MEET SATURDAY

Chances for State Title Honors Are Fair—Shrader Still in Poor Condition

Coach Jack Watson, is putting his men through some stiff sproutes this week, in preparation for the State meet which will be held at the Drake Stadium next Saturday afternoon. This hard work will be kept up until Thursday and the team will leave Friday afternoon for Des Moines.

The past week has witnessed some change in the men, not a great deal of hard work has been scheduled, but there has been no let up in the practices. As a result the men are in good condition.

Shrader, is still suffering some from an infection on his foot, but will be in shape for Staurday, it is hoped. Several weight men will be added to the list this week, if Darrin and Martin continue their good work. These two men with Garretson are handling the shot and discus about on a par. If they continue this close work all week, it is likely that they will all three be sent to Des Moines Saturday.

The Hawkeyes will have a much better chance in the state meet than in a dual meet, but what they will be able to do next Saturday is difficult to judge. If Shrader is out of commission the Hawkeye chances for a place anywhere near the top will be slim. Capt. Parsons, is putting in some hard work this week, and will be in the best of condition by Saturday.

HAWKEYE TEAM HAS SUCCESSFUL TRIP

Iowa Wins Two Out of Three Games On Northern Trip to Dubuque and Minneapolis

The Hawkeye baseball team returned Sunday after a successful trip to the north, winning two out of the three contests played. Saturday Iowa defeated the Minnesota nine 5 to 3 in a well played game. Laucks for Iowa pitched a great game holding the Gophers to two hits and having them shut out until the last inning when scratch hits mixed with errors by Sinn and Laucks permitted the northerners to score a trio of tallies.

Friday's game caught the Hawkeyes off their stride and they went down to defeat 8 to 1, though Ing-ham pitched much better ball than the score would indicate.

Thursday the locals defeated St. Josephs 3 to 1 in a good contest with Baird pitching stellar ball.

CARPE DIEM

(Read the footnote before you read the rest of this)

You desire for yourself the best things. You want the best clothes you can afford, the best foods, the best books and magazines, the best entertainments. Sometimes you must content yourselves with what you know to be second-rate; but you don't like it.

Now, this week offers you an opportunity to get the best there is. On Thursday, May 21, you are to have the chance to hear, in two grand concerts, the well-known Theodore Thomas Orchestra. You have read and heard about it all your life. You probably know that it is one of the three greatest orchestras in America.

You have no conception of the great pleasure in store for you, if you have never heard a great orchestra like this. You may have the notion that the Thomas Orchestra is only a magnified little orchestra. No! No! It is not merely that this orchestra is large, not that it has sixty or sixty-five men with violins and harps and horns and oboes and bassoons and tympani.

The Thomas Orchestra is great because by combination of all these instruments, and others you never saw or heard of, the master artist is enabled to produce the fullest and sweetest of all music. The well-balanced orchestra is the most superb musical instrument that human genius can devise. Frederick Stock is one of the greatest conductors.

This is worth while as few things are. This is one of the best things of life. Even if your soul be dulled by the commonplace, it will lift you up. Close your eyes and listen, and you will have an experience such as you never had before. This is as near as you can come in life to hearing the "Music of the Spheres." No one is so unmusical as not to enjoy it.

The Orchestra plays throughout both of the concerts. You will want to hear them both. Don't think you will be satisfied with hearing one. You will wish there were five concerts rather than two.

Then the voices. The soloists alone will be worth more than the price of admission. But besides these you will hear the hundred voices of the Choral Society. Professor Schoettle has been training them for months for this occasion and for you. You will be delighted with them all. You can see how Syracuse likes this sort of thing; the Orchestra just played the "Hymn of Praise" there for five hundred voices. The concerts will be given at 2:30 and 8:15 P. M.

A season ticket for $5.00? No. Only $2.75 for both concerts, or less than $1.40 a concert. You have spent more for one entertainment of far less interest and value.

Grasp the opportunity. After you once have enjoyed the experience you will not wonder that those who are promoting the Spring Festival are eager to interest all residents of Iowa City, and that they want to be able to bring the Orchestra back to Iowa City again and again. It will mean much to the town if your interest makes this possible.

SACRIFICE SOME LUXURY IF YOU MUST, BUT HEAR THE ORCHESTRA BY ALL MEANS.

Reservation of seats is on Wednesday and Thursday at Wieneke's.

* This is addressed particularly to persons who have never heard the Thomas Orchestra. We hope they will read and ponder it. For those who have heard the Orchestra such words are of course superfluous. They will realize how impossible it is to explain the matter in words. We beg them to help make it clear to others.

ed in these dances will be Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Scotland, Ireland, Japan, Germany, Hungary, Russia, Italy and Spain. The grand finale will be an American country dance participated in by the dancers of all the nations.

The girls have been practicing faithfully for some time and under the able direction of Miss Alice Wilkinson, Miss Alice Wilmarth and Miss Carrie Hupp, of the department of physical training for women, the pageant should be the most stupendous seen on Iowa field. An orchestra under the direction of Miss McInnerny will accompany the dancers, and it is likely that the band will assist.

appointed president of the state university have been informed by members of the board that President Seerley prefers to remain at Cedar Falls. Mr. Seerley has been offered the presidency of the state university and the state college at Ames, at different times in the past, but he declined both places, it is said.

"While there have been quarrels in the faculty at the Teachers' college at times, it is said that President Seerley has been able to handle the situation and the board has no fear of a disturbance at that institution such as have broken out at Iowa City and at Ames, according to members of the board.

A committee of the board will leave this week for the east to visit some of the gymnasiums erected at universities and colleges to get pointers for the gymnasium to be erected at Iowa City. When this committee returns next week, the state board will be called together at Iowa City for the report. At that time many important matters will be taken up. It is said that the filling of the place made vacant by the ousting of Prof. W. J. Kennedy at Iowa state college will not be taken up until a later meeting."
