HAWKEYES GO DOWN IN LAST GAME OF YEAR

GRINNELL GETS IOWA'S SCALE IN RETURN GAME OF SEASON—SCORE 2 TO 1

Inability to hit Anderson, Caussie, Hawkins Downum—Lauck Twisted Great Ball—Grinnell Fielding All-Right—Lauck Fought Game

Inability of the Iowa valiant in "hit 'em where they ain't," when it got to "hit 'em where they lie," was enough to cause the home town paties (down to Iowa to take the show out. to a 5 in 3 1 diamond tilt with Grinnell yesterday, in the game which was fought to the finish since the 1914 baseball season. Anderson, the doughty twirler of the Scarlet and Black aggregation, whose pitching, regrettably, left out, resulted in nothing but a vast, substantial, that smashed the Iowa for a higher ledge, backed, fueled a base on base when runs threatened. Even though taking his air-right pitching into consideration some gilt edged feeling on the part of life's magic was required to salvage the smiling wonder from Disaster. Notwithstanding the paint of pitifully by his teammates. Lauck, who worked in great length for the locals, with better luck might have pitched Iowa to victory. Both sides were about out in the first chapter, but the second Grinnel solved one marker across. After Anderson had been shown out, Grinnell, Tompkins was put. Par then proceeded to unload a whiting mark which scored Tompkins' Collie's Texasurer led shot on the plate by Inns in time to put off Tompkins. The sight was repeated when Grinnell worked the third, batted ball over McCab. locally intercepting the winning combination.

Not content with this, Grinnell added another tally in the third. France. After Seamad had stayed out in Seayler, Mary dashed down the low left field foul line. Joyce took three futile swings but Mary followed second. Boxing with Grinnell, Joyce scored Mary, when the low throw temperately eluded. Foster, Ulrick's bounder to Hanson stoned Grinnel. LAST CALL ISSUED FOR LAKE GENEVA

New Will Leave Next Friday Night
For Conference—Many New Speakers Are Announced

In five days the representatives from Iowa to the Lake Geneva conference of at Lake Geneva will be marching down the road in the way in which the successful V. M. C. conventions held in that place. The local V. M. C. will send the largest representation it has ever had and practically the largest from any of the surrounding states. Many men are registering every day and the hopes which Williams and his corps of workers first made will be amazed beyond recognition when the final number line up at the depot for the last five recreation.

A big surprise is in store for the men who will participate in this conference, for there will be approximately 50 numbers of speakers who will be present who were not mentioned in the bulletins. The noted speaker Graham Taylor, who is doing fine work in the slump district of Chicago and Fred B. Smith and C. D. Collins other V. M. C. workers of some note who have contributed to be there and give speeches throughout the conference.

H. W. Williams, Prof. Paris and Town will leave a day in the future to hold a meeting in preparation of the hundreds of young men who will arrive the next few days. The committee in charge of the local representation wish to urge that the men who are on the fence in regard to the matter of going, be present at the meet, ing which are to be held in the hope of the big opportunity which awaits them at the conference.

THOMAS H. MACBRIDE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION NAMED NEWLY ELECTED EDUCATOR PERMANENT HEAD

Was Elected Acting President When President Bosseman Resigned—University Endling Very Successful Year—Big Favored Assured

Professor Thomas H. Macbride, was elected president of the university last Friday, by the state board of education, then in session here. Professor Macbride, was elected acting president of the university to take the place of president John O. Bowman, who resigned, the first of last April. The news that Professor Macbride had been elected president of the university was received with pleasure by classes interested in the university.

Taking the president's chair, at a time when administrative affairs were somewhat in a turmoil, President Macbride has guided the ship in a manner masterly. His election to the presidency of the university is a recognition of his executive ability. In every case his policy has been to stick the heavy co-operation on the state board and of the faculty and students of the university.

FOOTBALL MEN HOLD IMPORTANT SESSION

Prof. A. G. Smith of Iowa Calls Meeting of Managers and Coaches at Chicago

With spring football practice showing up very well in the eyes of the coach and critics who were down at all the practices, Iowa is expected to make good in the game and best they have in them. There is already a great deal of interest prevalent all over the county and most any group of men around the campus may be heard to speak something of the prospects on the gridiron this fall by around.

Prof. A. G. Smith of Iowa, chairman of the committee on football officials, called the managers and coaches to session at Bertie gymnasium before the trains to select arthritics for the fall contests and dicde other points of importance to the gridiron officials. The official list was selected after a lengthy session, but the official list will not be announced until the middle of the summer. Because of the great changes made in the code by the rules committee, Prof. Smith did not wish to urge that the men who were present at the meeting of the official to the opening of the season on a uniform interpretation of the rules. Like most of the coaches, Prof. Smith said the present list of officials and rules were acceptable and a special meeting is not necessary.

The conference committee ruled of faculty representation from each of the conference colleges will meet this morning at the Congress Hall. A number of points will be made in the conference, but final votes on any subject which may be broached cannot be taken until the next meeting in Cincinnati.

Among the coaches and athletic directors who were present on Marshall field yesterday were: Gill, Iowa; Roop, Illinois; Easter, Iden, Wisconsin; Nicol, Purdue; Kel-lor, Walton, Hawley, Iowa; Stagg, Chicago; Rhoades, Brewer, Missouri; Christie, Land Sandford; Finger, Grinnell; Hamilton, Moramander; Guie, Northwestern; and Dr. Hurstfield of Indiana.

PHILIP ELECTORS AT BUSINESS MEETING

At the last meeting of the year the Philomathean society elected ad-lectors as follows: President—John T. Frederick; First Vice-President—Robert Albin; Recording Secretary—Benjamin Mack; Corresponding Secretary—Alvin Pfeiffer; Treasurer—W. McKenney; Secretaries—Clara Appell, Marion; Perpetual Committee—Dud Regers, Historian, Clarence Towman; Treasurer, E. H. Walker; Revisers, Ralph Calvin and Ralph Reihenber.

DEAN DUNN RESIGNS AS HEAD OF THE LAW

FORCED TO RESIGN DUE TO WIFE'S ILL-HEALTH—MOGOES TO BOSTON

Dissac to Give up Position in College of Law—Mogues Takes Effect at the End of Collegiate Year—Has Had Two Successful Years

Dean Harry W. Dunn, of the college of law, resigned his position Friday to take effect at the end of this, the collegiate year. The resignation was accepted by the state board which met here Friday. With his letter of resignation, Dunn, although, said that in explanation which is given below was stated that Mr. Dunn had been considering his resignation for some time owing to the ill health of his wife. Even last year he was doubtful, whether it would be best for him to come back, but the apparent improvement in Mrs. Dunn's health warranted the return to Iowa. However, this year it became impossible for Mrs. Dunn to seek a different climate for her health. This is Mr. Dunn's second year as head of the college of law. He has been highly successful in his work be discerned by the steady advancement of the college law under his guidance. It was announced yesterday that Mr. Dunn will return to Boston, where he will take up the writing of his book. He will become the owner of the firm of Fish, Richardson, Herrick and Neave, with which firm he was connected before coming to the state university of Iowa. He will leave Iowa City about July first. (Continued on Page Four)

FEDERAL DIRECTORS INSPECT BUILDING

The Iowa State Funeral Directors Association which is holding a conference here made a tour through the university buildings last Friday. They remarked about the grandeur and special beauty of the buildings and the campus grounds. Old citizens in the city say that the grounds around the university have never been so pretty and that the students have never taken such an interest in the grounds as they have this last year.

Thomas H. Macbride is a remarkable man, it was heard over states when the State Board of Education elected Thomas H. Macbride acting president of the university. The announcement of his resignation of President Bowman, last spring. This same voice of appreciation was raised even more enthusiastically Friday afternoon when it was announced that the State Board of Education had elected Professor Macbride as the permanent president of the university.

The executive ability of President Macbride has been very evident during the past two months. Working in harmony, with the State Board of Education, the faculty and the students of the university, President Macbride has brought the university to a most successful close.

"The voice of Iowa" had the unbounded admiration, respect and loyalty of the student body. The people in the state, and especially, the students of the college of law, learned Friday of the resignation of Dean Henry W. Dunn, from the college of law brings to him the sympathy of all who have known him. No one who has known Mrs. Dunn, has realized that her health was not of the best, although no word of complaint has passed her lips, consequently when it was learned that Mr. Dunn's resignation was due to the fact that his wife's health, there was no surprise felt.

Dean Dunn will return to Boston, there to assume actual practice with the law firm with which he was connected before he came to Iowa. The fact that he returns to work with a firm, noted to the legal world, and with which he was formerly connected, is highly significant of his ability in his profession. The best wishes of the student body go with Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.

Lansay an Exhibition to Feature Next Week

Work of Professor Dunn and Students will Be Thrown Open to Public

June 15

The Lansay Island has attracted the attention of the public for three years. Since Professor Dunn returned from the famous Lansay Island war coast in the Pacific ocean, and announced that the university would prepare an exhibit of the marvelous bird life of the Lansay Island, the public eye has anxiously awaited for the completion of the exhibit.

On June 15 the public will be allowed to witness, what is said to be the most complete exhibit of the kind in the world. For three years, artists working under the direction of Professor Dunn have been laboring to complete the display.

The exhibition will be opened, as stated above, on June 15, so that the commencement visitors may see it. Because the exhibit takes up the entire first floor of the building, it has been made necessary for the university to use its entire building to accommodate the visitors.

There will be a meeting of the editors and newspaper men of the city Monday night at the Commercial Club on the 15th. It's a business question promptly to discuss the matter of an Alumni dinner at the Hotel Johnston.

GRADUATING RECITAL TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY

Third Graduating Class of School of Music To Take Place In Natural Science Auditorium

On Friday evening, June 12th, will take place the third graduate recital of the university school of music in the Natural Science Auditorium.

The recital, which is planned to coincide with the commencement exercises, will consist of several vocal and instrumental selections by the various classes. The program will be introduced by Dr. Alvin H. Hawthorne, director of the music department, and will be followed by the graduating classes. The recital will conclude with the singing of the university song, "The Bells of the University of Iowa."
Judge McClain Was Formerly of Supreme Bench.—Has Long Been Acquainted with University.

It seems quite probable at the present time as given out by those of authority that Judge McClain at the present time holding a position in the law school will be the successor of Dean Henry Dunn, whose resignation was accepted by the state board. It is known that the Judge was offered the deancy before Dean Dunn resigned, and Dean Dunn was selected for that position which he has held for ten years. He became a judge of the Iowa supreme court on March 9, 1890. He has been connected with the college since 1873 to 1881. He was Professor of law offered greater advantages than the practice of law. That belief is now conclusively established. I have enjoyed the work of the deanroom more than I had anticipated, and though I had much dissatisfaction, the administrative burdens of the position, I found the rewards worth the effort. Honored progress is always slow and I have had moments of impatience, but my belief in the future of the school is now stronger than ever.

Both to guard against any possible misinterpretation and to avoid any confusion resulting from the success of a duty justly due, let me say plainly that this decision is not the result of any dissatisfaction with the conditions under which I have been working, that I have found the students a most responsive, and deserving of the best I could give them, and that the loyal support of the faculty and the uniform approval of my plans and recommendations by the President and the Board of Education have earned my gratitude, and add greatly to the satisfaction of the work, and left me no ground for complaint.

I should feel that my duty were here, and should gladly discharge it, if it did not conflict with another and more imperative duty; but since the situation, the only course open to me is to tender my resignation, to take effect at the close of the academic year.

“Very truly yours,
HENRY W. DUNN.”
