IMPORTANT CHANGES IN ATHLETIC BOARD MADE

NEW METHOD OF SELLING SEATS TO BE EMPLOYED.

The recent meeting of the board in control of athletics was held Wednesday evening in the armory and resulted in the adoption of an amended and more satisfactory regulation of the sale of seats, the board, of the adoption of the "I"-"U", and "I"-"U", in the members of the varities teams this spring and autumn are now members.

A new method of selling tickets was adopted for the big football games was approved and adopted by the board.

The Illinois plan of selling tickets is destined to meet with the approval of the holders of the year and "I" tickets and it is advertised that it will eliminate much of the criticism which was heaped upon the athletic association after the big game of last fall.

The Minnesota game will be played on Saturday, October 14. In all probability the seat sale will open on Thursday before the game. Some days before the opening of the seat sale, the holders of the year and "I" tickets will secure a blank, upon which there is space for twenty Professor J. H. Dunlap of the empire college heads the delegation from Iowa this year. He was chosen to take the place of Professor F. W. Bower, who was detained on account of the serious illness of his wife.

Thirty university men go to Geneva from the state who represent the towns that represented the university last year, and last year's representation was double that of the preceding year. Usually several thousand students are expected to attend the conference. The school graduate who will enter the college will be Taylor this fall. He is a Filipino Pakinot born by name, who was graduated from Crewe, Iowa, high school this spring.

The conference at Lake Geneva opens tonight at 7 o'clock and will continue for two days.

GOVERNOR'S DAY FOR UNIVERSITY

Governor Clark Will Inspire University Regiment This Afternoon.

The annual governor's day review of the Iowa cadet regiment will be held this afternoon on Iowa field.

Governor Clark will arrive toma-tow on the afternoon train and immediately go to Iowa field where he will inspect the regiment. Owing to important business his stay here will be brief, and he will leave later in the afternoon, making his stay here only about two hours.

President Philo leaves the free-call for the cadets at 3:15, and enroute to the brief inspection that Governor Clark will make in the field is now necessary for the soldiers to be on time and attend strictly in duty. The assembly will be made at 3:15, and the inspection will take place on Iowa field promptly at 4 o'clock.

"The Romancers," the play to be staged by the literary society tomorrow Wed-ber, will be a part of the annual "I-VIC" exhibition, will be given at the Eng-tort theater this year. The change of plan was made owing to the fact that the play prohibits the using of stage scenery and captain on the natural auditorium stage without fire protection devices.

The program of the evening will give the first act of the play, which is a complete story in itself. The "Ro-mancers" is from the pen of Hoyt, the author of the highly successful "Chautvester." It is an interesting story of two old Frenchmen, who were the best friends, but who lega-dily decided in order to bring their children to fall in love with each other. The affected anger of the parents when they discover these sotdiatic meetings between their children, the attempted abduction and rescue, all make a situation of keenness, action and high class comedy.

Among other numbers on the pro-

EIGHTEEN PEOPLE IN "PILLARS OF SOCIETY"

STONG CHARACTERS, OF IOWA, ARE AMENITY BY SENATORS

Glick and Miss Hansan in Leading Roles—Players in Principal Parts Have Good Interpretations—The Cast.

Eighteen people will take part in the senior play, Monday evening at the usual time. As in all their dramas, each character has an important part and the entire cast is strong.

Conrad Bernhard is a substantial member of society, wealthy and honored in his love for his beautiful in his closeout whose success fulravishment furnishes the motive for the play. His behavior under these cond-tions reveals the true manhood which has hindered but not killed. George Glick hands this character in masterful fashion.

His wife is a pliable little woman, the complete subject of convention, and the slave of public opinion. He also finds happiness before the powerful character of Lena Hewit, and Karlotta Bernhard's former sweetheart.

Katherine Glick, with a very pleasing interpretation of this character. She has all the power of the free outside world, the world which dares society and convention when a part.

Schools and colleges have a very relaxed attitude on this matter. The National Association of High School Principals has called a meeting to discuss the matter and to give a very realistic effect to the scene.

MISS WILLARD HERE For SUMMER SCHOOL

Popular Instructor in Public Speaking Here For Third Summer’s Work

Miss Alice Willard, head of the department of public speaking at Cooper College, Secretary, Kansas, arrived early in the week to undertake her work for the summer school at the university. This is the third summer Miss Willard has conducted the work in public speaking in summer school at the university.

Miss Willard will be remembered by those who witnessed the thrill-plagued play "Hippolyta" last year, in the part of the heroines’ nurse, where new gained commendation from all who saw her. She is very popular with both faculty and student body, and the quality of her work is attested by her continued success in her various positions.

Miss Willard has been at the hotel for house keeper’s arrival, but two boys knew that the eye was here. Thursday morning she experienced a very unpleasant surprise by appearing in the class in acting conducted by Miss Harrison, where she gave a very gay and agreeable interpretation of “Beloved of many” at the request of the class. Miss Harrison was then called and presented to the boys pleasing selections.

TO MILITARY MEN

"We boys who are planning to take the army as a military career may make out his list of preferences of the various agencies, the holders of the "I" tickets will sign this blank, and signify under their names that they wish an extra reserved seat. This blank will be filed at the secretary’s office, and before the seat sale will be taken by Manager Kellogg and men appointed for the purpose and placed in a large box, there to be shaken up and, the slips with the names will be drawn therefrom, and the first list of names selected will get the first seat of seats, and so on until all the applications for seats are filled.

There will also be a section for the veterans. In this section, the holders of the year and "I" tickets will be allowed to have extras. All those who wish to sit in the section for veterans will have the regular seat sale open and those who wish the seats will secure them there in the usual way.

All applications will be placed in a card index file, and when the seat sale opens, those who have filed application will call at the box office for their tickets, and the group will be seated. The regular seat sale will open in usual, and those who wish the seats will secure them there in the usual way.

The end of the meeting will be a great deal better than the one in vogue during the past few years.

In order to have the student body and various colleges well represented, in the board of control of athletics, the amendment to the constitution of the board which provides for extra members was passed at the last meeting.

The college of dentistry will be represented by one member, and so on throughout all the six colleges of the university. The student body at large will be represented by a member who is to be elected by the Iowan Union. The alumni membership on the board in control of athletics has been cut down one member, which leaves but one member from the alumni.

The board in control of athletics decided to award the official letter to those men who won third places at the state meet. The following men were awarded their letters in track:

Peters, Shrader, Gilliland, Dick Tyler, Martin, Mortimore and Rock. The winners of the "all." Bowen and Gerradon. Capt. Summer of the cross-country team last fall was awarded the official "I" for his work on the team.

The baseball "I" was awarded to the following men:

Cpt. Haith, Sterlingford, Votter, Spurlock, Shill, Hansen, Bower, Lane, Johnson, Sime, Snyder, Bruskeoner, Bee and Gross. Numerals were awarded to the following freshmen:

Bambeck, Cawett, Calvin, Cough, Crissman, Donfer, Murman, Franck, Turton, Radbey, Kenne, Oph, MaxFare, Elliot, Lankelma, Rowe, Dufcon, Kelley, Speulger, Gena, Bev­­er, Bliss, Swanson, Fisher, John­­son, Parker, Hook, Dison and Bender.

Do You Want to Earn $50.00 A Week Every Week This Summer?

You can do it, and some of you can make more than this amount each week. You can do it in Northern Iowa, Southern South Dakota and Minnesota, where the demand is great for our Seed Corn Dryers. You can make your own deliveries, if you wish, or you can merely take orders and we will make all deliveries direct to the farmer in the fall; paying you your commission on the orders as they are received.

The demand is great for this proposition in Northern corn growing territory. We have reduced the retail price of this dryer to one dollar. It was advertised in all the farm papers extensively last fall at $1.50, spending several thousand dollars in this publicity work. Last year the men sold from 20 to 30 per day, the average sale being five to a customer, as the capacity of each dryer is 300 ears and most farmers wish to save 1000 ears for seed.

At the reduced price the men should sell from 40 to 60 dryers daily making an average sale of six dryers to each customer. This is a practical proposition that will make the farmer money. The farmer wants it and will thank you for calling; thus making it a pleasant proposition to sell.
