FOOTBALL TO PLAY ON NORTH END OF THE STADIUM

WORK STARTED ON MEN'S GYM

GETTING READY FOR GAME WITH TEACHERS

HOLD ON NORTH END OF THE STADIUM

WORK on the new addition to the stadium has commenced and will be the 1915 SYNDICATE. The additions will cost about $15,000 and correspond to the style of architecture in the old building. It is to be 75 by 165 feet and is being built onto the north end of the old stadium.

The first floor has a large locker room about fifty-three feet square, with two showers rooms each side of it. The doors are to be painted on the west side of the wings and 1/2 in. by 60 ft. This floor is to be covered with rubber and will be lined with white enameled brick. Another shower room thirty-eight feet by six feet will accommodate those coming from the large filters that will be installed for the water in the pool. This floor is also provided with an exercise room and a locker and shower room for the faculty.

The second floor are located the football cage and two handball courts. The cages is 18 by 43 feet and is 60 feet long.

FRESHMEN MUST REPORT FOR PRACTICE OR ATTEND DRESS.

Much Work Yet Needed to Be Done by Varsity Team. Freshmen Picture to Be Taken Friday.

Profs. Lauer and Kendall, the coaches, have sent in a list of all freshmen football candidates yesterday.

It was announced yesterday that big secured equipment and announced that it will report daily or else return for military drill which begins on Monday.

The spectators were hurried up the floor inside and were secret practices held. A half hour was spent in putting the horses ready for the ball and the linemen getting down fast under the punts. Kerwick will be the place-kicker.

The second and third strings alternated against the first squad in a short practice kicking off and returning punts. The linemen doing the hosting, and the second warm-up was held. Varsity against the second team and the third squad against the freshmen.

The varsity battalion showed up in the second string line without their usual safeguards. The secondary defence, however, held the brunt of their attack, with Dolley, Ellington and Barrett put up the best game. For the first team, Willis and Kerwick gained consistently and the work of Grose was up to his last year's standard.

Wilson did not report as was expected and it is not known when he will return. Wilson is in addition to the line-up, as the Harrington has not yet back in harness.

The line-ups of the first and second teams follow.

Elliott speaks on theme here.

Big Audiences Hear Talk By Noted Y. M. C. A. Official of Young Man.

That used big motives in order to do the biggest things in this was the main feature of the address of "Dad" Elliott which was given last evening before the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in the natural science auditorium.

"Dad" told the story of a young man who graduated from Northwestern at the head of his class, being the only man in the entire class who had to do the homework on the first day of the freshman year. The man evidently had a great life before him.

Two years ago, he said, he met the man after a ball game in the street and asked the man after a ball game in the street and asked him how he was.

The man replied that he was not sorry that he did not hit a home run.

The speech was made before the students of the University of Iowa. The man evidently had a great life before him.

THE IOWA UNION.

Organizations and societies are the two great factors in the development of social life without or- ganization and cooperation between individuals no great problem could be solved, and no great work furnished. It is within the organization that great movements are conceived and it is through the cooperation of the members that these great ideas materialize. In colleges and universities, there are many organizations, each having a definite purpose. The union is an integral part of the college in proportion to their function and the success to which they perform their duties.

The University of Iowa has numerous organizations, each working in a separate sphere and none can claim to be one of the most important in the student body. The union is the place where the students work and help to assist all men of the university. It is democratic in principle and comprehensive in scope. Although the union is the student center for all the organizations in the university, because of its very nature, it is all important to popular and the most important institution for the men of the university. Dr. J. C. Walker

Was Captain of Hawkeye Football in 1917—Successful Physician At Home.

The last time over the remains of Dr. J. C. Walker of Des Moines, as we have more recently been familiar to the students and alumni of the university, captain of the Iowa team of 1917 and for the past fifteen years a practicing physician at Boone, was held from the late home town in that city Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. His death occurred last Friday as a result of an opera- tion which refused in spite of treat- ment although every remedy known to medical science was resorted to. Dr. Walker graduated from the University of Iowa, taking the medical class of 1898. He won fame in uni- versity circles as the captain of the Iowa team of 1917, which was so successful that the Hawkeyes won all eleven men on the other team. The reason for this is that it is impossible to obtain a copy of the program at the meetings of the clubs.

In the early days of the organization, the members were always more interested in the program than in the club. As a result of this, the club was unable to keep its members interested in the club. As a result of this, the club was unable to keep its members interested in the club. As a result of this, the club was unable to keep its members interested in the club.

The title of “Dramatic Club” is given to the club because it is the place where the students work and help to assist all men of the university. It is democratic in principle and comprehensive in scope. Although the union is the student center for all the organizations in the university, because of its very nature, it is all important to popular and the most important institution for the men of the university.

ANNUAL MIXED.

The Irving Institute will hold its annual sing fest for university men tonight at 11 o'clock in the rooms in the society at Close Hall. Several day invitations have been sent out by the committee in charge of its arrangements, but every man in society, who is interested in societies and especially freshmen, is urged to attend.

An exceptionally fine program has been prepared for the evening's entertainment in several topics. The opening numbers of the institute, to gether with a number of faculty representatives will deliver short talks.

Following the program refreshments will be served.

The purpose of the stag is to allow the society to get acquainted with the new men in the university and get in touch with prospective members.

taken up.)

Dad, answering "yes," was met by the reply from this leader of his class, that in the ten years' time he had been out of college, he had failed utterly to satisfy himself. The speaker then brought out the fact that a large student was needed-a motive which was a determination to give God's maximum chance to work through his life. He said that this motive deduced upon three things: the qualific peace of the life one leads, a vocation large enough to express this life, and the putting of one's life in the place where it would do the great good
which God blessed by Providence.
The meeting was one of great interest. Tom Martin presided and George Kenyon led the singing.

in the second round of battle, lack of new men, forced the Rapp's to put in the same material which had been used in the opening contest. The freshmen, with an entirely fresh lineup, pushed the big sphere over the upper-classman's goal before the second third of the contest was finished.
The high score was practically a walk-away for the freshmen, who,combinating their remaining new material with the veterans of the other two contests, carried the ball down the field for the second goal in the first minute of play.

The contest was a hard-fought one, both teams being strong. Iowa is the best team from the standpoint of the team's strength, and the putting of one's life in the place
where it would do the great good
which God blessed by Providence.

The meeting was one of great interest. Tom Martin presided and
