Each boy was asked that if he was in the grade he was last at in the time he left school, what was his age and name, and the names and addresses of his teachers, and his reasons for leaving school, his occupation and the reason of his leaving school. The information was received by the boys and immediately posted back on the play. This whole process will be in line shape for the next half year. Unfortunately Learning was not so steady. arm, will not be in good condition, but the rest of those on the hospital list should be fully recovered by that time. Northwestern has not shown much yet this year, putting up their last fight, though the score was not the smallest, but Schurter against Illinois. The game will be played at Evanston and should result in a score of Iowa, though not by nearly so large a total as last year.

The game with Nebraska looms up as the hardest left on the Iowa schedule. The Cornhuskers upset the dopes last week when they ran away with a 24-0 victory over the Michigan Aggies. The Aggies held Michigan to one field goal in their combat the week before and with any kind of breaks would have won, so it will be seen that Nebraska was defeating a strong team.

Coach Williams of Minnesota is quoted as expressing disappointment at the "poor showing" of the Minnesota team against Iowa, and the loss work of his offense. Perhaps his "smoothest working offense, in the conference" had not yet experienced the Iowa brand of football.
