CYCLONES ARE DEFATED BY HAWKEYE WARRIORS

Ames Scores Lone Touchdown by Series of Trick Plays and Complex Shifts—Both Teams Played Hard Game—Score 27-6

Before a crowd of nearly 10,000, Ames and Iowa roosters, the Iowa football warriors responded to the-style cry of "HAWKEYE" and defeated the Aggies yesterday on the field by a score of 27 to 6.

The sixteenth annual duel between the two educational institutions was played on the gridiron last night. The visitors did not approach the Iowa field with mild expectancy. The Iowa team was low from the very start, though the first quarter of the game was almost a stand-off, the scores each for the others alternately went almost immeasurable with excitement. During the third part of the first quarter Ames displayed the Iowa, and it was during this period that the Aggies made their Iowa-bounding.

CULTURE AT WORK.
The first mark of cultures is the ability to get a firm grip upon some principle of science or conduct. That is simply the first step and is not enough. The surest sign that culture is genuine is the disposition of a person to put the principal over into the hands of the Christian church—A. M. Perry.

THE DAILY IOWAN.

Some people talk a lot and say little. We talk a little and say a lot.

Some large business deals have been ruined because some man on the inside couldn't keep a secret. Many men have failed in business because they talked too much.

In no business is it more essential to treat all transactions absolutely confidential than the loan business. It is necessary for all men to borrow money occasionally but no one wants his neighbors talking about it.

When you borrow money at the loan department of the Famous Clothing Store you can always rest assured that nobody will know it. H. Tarnopol has loaned hundreds of dollars in the past eight months that he has been in the loan business, yet you cannot say that you have learned from him personally of a single loan.

When you borrow money don't go to the man who tells everything he knows. He tells you all about the affairs of others, you must expect him to tell others of your business dealings. Ask for a loan at the store where the proprietor can keep a secret. The only place is
