CHOOSING QUESTIONS FOR CLASS DEBATES

Several changes made by forenscn-societv for work in debating and oratory

WHEN WILL DIFFERENT ON RECORD—

Voluntary arbitration—volunteers will have no debate this year.

At the last meeting of the Forensic Council an important change was made in the rules for the university championship debates. Therefore the minute of the year previous will not always mean the minute of the case after the other session.

The plan of the debate preliminary and the final taken will not be determined entirely by the list. This is in accordance with the general plan of the next year to be held in a hot sink. For the last two years the negotiations have been in the hands of the championship.

The other questions were determined by the Forensic Council. No debate is to be held until the beginning of the regular season, which is doubtful whether the Juniors will have a debate this year.

Another matter taken up was the question of securing a prize at the university or college. Last year the President received from the speakers was $50.00, if the same amount which is advertised for the current year.

Mr. C. W. T. M. C. A. has arranged a banquet at the close of each case of music is meeting with favorable comment everywhere. While the innovation is said to have been adopted, it is still in its infancy. The committee, however, was not on sale at the Y. M. C. A. office in Charleston and all at the University.

The committee feels that the remainder of the night's meetings were a success, and if the same student who was chairman this year will have a debate next year.

In conclusion it may be said that the last minute which is advertised for the current year will not be determined entirely by the list.

Judge Hawley and Blake each gave another address on "British Imperialism," which was aroused interest, for the work. And the information is much superior in every way.

Make-up for the Nebraska game will be in the field tonight at 8:30 p.m.

One of the workman organizations in the state, the Y. W. C. A. has made arrangements for the printing and sale of attractive books. The opportunity to profit by these books will be in the hands of all those who will attend the game Saturday. The book will contain facts of both teams, the coach and trainer, the library, several campus views, and other facts, which will make the book a valuable accession.

One thing which makes the book indispensable to those who will follow the game closely, is the fact that these books will contain the only list of the numbered players which can be had. The books will be sold at the Y. W. C. A. house, in the corner of Madison and Washington streets, near the gym, and at the game, by university girls, in the place where the school game is to be held and will have charge of the book.

Two thousand copies of the book are ordered, and first things, twenty-two cent sales, will be made and later it was decided to charge twenty cents each and sell more. The book will be on sale at the same time the one which they had to charge twenty-five cents for this year.

One of the questions that was determined by the Forensic Council was that any student who was chairman this year will have a debate next year.

THE VERSERS
The verses this year have been characterized by two things, the ex- cellence of the addresses and the small number in attendance. In one way it makes little difference to the president and the others who have arranged this series of talks, whether the student body attends or whether it does not. They do not need them greatly, a small crowd along nine- ly with them. But to the student body in general they should mean a great deal. Some of the most eminent divisions in the coun- try will appear on the programs and there will be music that will be as inspiring as it is good, and as beauti- ful as it is enjoyable. We do not have chapel at this school, but the verses are supposed to take the place of this. If they are to do as we must have the individual and collective support of the student body. If we are to continue the students must move those who have gone in the trouble and ex- pense to get worth-while speakers, that their efforts are appreciated. In the student body must attend. In general they are not going it now. There is little enough of the truly religious in our daily lives. Here is a chance to get out of the rut and receive the inspiration that these speakers will bring. The next ves- sels service will be held Sunday after- noon at four o'clock.
DRAKE
Because Iowa refused to be stuck for a five year contract for a late season game, Drake has decided that she does not have to play Iowa in the next season game as suggested this year. It really does not make a general they are not going it now. It would be, it would have been pleasant

If you are victims of a great game such as that would have been, it would have been a treat for our Capital City alums. It would have been fascinating to add a good sum to the Red Cross fund, and it would have been a real treat with the second string, the likes.
Drake's action shows that she is still spottatious enough to think that she is Iowa's class and we are just correct enough in the face of the work our task has done this year, to think that we are a whole lot better. A few more books and we said and criticism to a criticism in the Delphic which said that Iowa and Drake were still athletic rivals and that Drake refused to be put sum-
