CONHSKERS MARCH TO VICTORY ON IOWA FIELD

"Halligan around" laid no terror for the Hawkeyes yesterday but "Halligan back" did. The Cornhusker captain tackled ten points by the serial route and sent the Iowa defense down to defeat 14 to 7. Halligan booted a place kick from the twenty-five yard line in the first quarter and started the scoring for the westerners. After that he was successful in two out of four attempts at place kicks and goal following a touchdown by Potter. The Halligan combo was on the bustling end of nearly every forward pass made by Nebraska and it was "all Halligan." Iowa fought bitterly in the final whistle and scored in the last ten minutes of play on a spectacular forward pass, gross to Carberry. Passers kicked the goal.

For Iowa Correction was the only back to sail consistently and twice through the Cornshakers forward wall with time and time again, aided by his teammates he pushed the ball within striking distance of the enemy's goal several times. Each time Stiehm's men held and prevented a tally. The center of the Cornshakers was directly attributable to their wonderful forward play. Long passes, Halligan to Howard, time and time again, were completed for startling goals, placing the ball in striking distance for Halligan to score by a place kick. The Wisconsinites went eighty yards on their only touchdown of the battle and sent Potter over from the one foot line for the tally. Twice in the first half Iowa carried the ball close to the enemy's goal posts only to lose it on short yardage attempts. In the second half the Hawkeyes were within striking distance several times, but Nebraska braced and held. In the third quarter Carberry received a long pass from Gross on his own goal line and dropped it as he was tackled. Walter Rotherfield of Chicago, referred. Field of Nebraska was unimpressed by Iowa majorities. The Hawkeyes appeared at 2:12 and were followed seven minutes later by Stiehm's aggregation. Nebraska won the toss and received the kick of Iowa breaches at 2:22. The outcome of the game was: Nebraska—Left end, Howard; left tackle, Captain Halligan; left guard, (Continued on Page Three)
